Textbook Legislation Submitted by Doyle

Transit District Studies Track for Commute Uses

The purchase of the Sacramento Northern Railroad right of way tracks between Lafayette and the Alameda County line was proposed Wednesday night at the meeting of the Contra Costa-Alameda Transit District.

Purpose of the proposal was to run Key System trains over the S-N tracks to Concord. The contract would call for outright purchase of the track and right of way to Lafayette from Oakland and rental of the system into the Pittsburg area.

THE SACRAMENTO - Northern right of way is to be abandoned some time next month as soon as the Union Street rail connection is completed in Oakland.

The track will be dumped as scrap unless some official body takes jurisdictio nover it, according to a Sacramento - Northern spokesman.

The actual outcome of the right of way itself is somewhat of a mystery at the present time. Neither the Contra Costa Department of Public Works nor the Planning Commission seems to know what will happen to the property when the lease expires.

BOTH DEPARTMENTS seem to be waiting for an opinion from the District Attorney's office and that office seems to be waiting for some recommendation from the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission or the Right of Way Department of the Department of Public Works, according to observers.

The motion to purchase the right of way and necessary leasing of the remainder of the line was made at the board meeting by J. H. Arnold, director of Ward 2 representing Berkeley and Richmond.

HE HAD BEEN named by the board to study the possibilities of obtaining railroad right of way for commute service.

The commute system would be operated by the transit district and not the Key System. Key System has shown that it would rather pull in its commute service area rather than expand it.

Key System also faces strike possibilities June 1 as another wage contract is to be discussed between the Key System and employees.

Members of the Contra Costa Commuters Association, John McKirahan and Dick Tiedeman, both of Lafayette, voiced their support of the proposal to buy out the S-N tracks and right of way and the leasing of the remainder of the line for commute service.

THE TWO COUNTY district has been long opposed by the Board of Supervisors and other Contra Costa citizens groups.

A movement is now under way to seek legal action for the exclusion of Contra Costa from the Transit District although the district was voted into existence by the vote of the public in November's general elections.

ANNUAL "WORK NIGHT" at Orinda Nursery School will be held Monday night at the school's quarters at Orinda Community Church. After being fed at a potluck supper, the fathers will be placed in service — which means they'll wield hammers, paint-brushes and other instruments in getting the Nursery School ship-shape. Getting into the proper spirit are dads Jack Saunders (left) and Ned de Laveaga, preparing to do some work on the row boat at the school. Youngsters Martha de Laveaga (left) and Debbie Saunders seem confident their dads will do a good job, but the two women, Mrs. Ned de Laveaga (left) and Mrs. T. G. Cullen, maintenance chairmen, appear to be a bit skeptical. —Sun photo by Mattson

Over 300 Orinda Dads Get $6300 for Fight on Polio

More than 300 Orinda Fathers took over Orinda's "Mothers' March on Polio" in all districts except Oak Drive, where the mothers collected for the March of Dimes in the afternoon of January 31.

On the night of the Father's March on Polio — January 31 — it was a common sight to see fathers isolated and in pairs, some bedecked with mother's hat, others bareheaded, come trooping into the Orinda School auditorium with filled collection envelopes ready for counting.

There they were greeted by admiring mothers and children engaged in counting dimes from coin collectors brought in from public places, clubs and schools. Meanwhile, tellers from the American Trust Company were busy reckoning up the bulk of the contributions.

EVERY NEW bevy of smartly chapeaud fathers entering the school would ask the same question: "Have we collected more than last year? I know I did tonight."

All connected with the Fathers' March were firm in their resolve to at least equal last year's March of Dimes figure.

And it appears that by the time the counting is finished — it continued at midweek — they will equal the amount.

OVER $6300 has been collected so far by the Fathers' March, according to Boyd Edelin and Joseph Pardini, co-chairmen of the Fathers' March for Orinda, Moraga and Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lucas, Orinda area co-chairmen, said of the March of Dimes campaign:

"Last year our collection was $10,414.14. So far with our present Fathers' March count we are in excess of $9000.

AND THE CHORTLING over the events of the Fathers' March won't stop for many a moon. Fathers are still talking of the households where contributions were given in the form of two strips of Scotch tape to which close-spaced dimes were attached. The lengths of tape corresponded to the lengths of the babies in those homes.

One baby was approximately 20 inches long and rang up $2.50. Another child resulted in a strip of dimes worth $4.60.

"We were unable to get the names of the parents, but it was a cute idea, and many thanks," said Edelin and Pardini.

THE CO-CHAIRMEN are convinced that the styles set by the Orinda Fathers' March "are going to put mother back to the 'flapper' period if she follows our lead," in Edelin's words.

"Yes," added Pardini, "a good example of our high style was James Chapple in quite an elegant black fur hat, not to mention Bill Wood, Gordon Smith, Elbe Westful, Bud Fitzgerald and Bill Clyatt, who were indescribable."

Delicious cakes and coffee were donated and served by the Santa Maria Women's Club, at the Orinda School "depot" for the Fathers' March.

MR. AND MRS. Lucas, Mr. Edelin and Mr. Pardini, and the other volunteers for the March of Dimes expressed "heartfelt thanks to the people in the Orinda-Moraga-Canyon area for the wonderful response to our drive."

"Anyone who may have been missed on the night of the Fathers' March, or who was not home and would still like to make a donation, may take it to the American Trust Company in Orinda," the Lucas' said.

Punitive Rule, Single Text Choice Attacked

By DICK OSBORN

Four bills affecting textbook purchasing and the state education system were introduced on the last day of the recent legislative session, Assemblyman Donald Doyle told The Sun in an exclusive interview today.

He also declared that in spite of previously anounced intentions to hold further hearings on the textbook situation, his Assembly Committee on Education had decided that all necessary information had been compiled, and that further hearings should be cancelled.

Doyle explained the four pieces of legislation as:

1. A BILL THAT will eliminate punitive action against school teachers and schol districts for not using state printed textbooks.
2. A bill affecting the period of textbook adoption, cutting the present eight year adoption period to four years.
3. A bill concerning the number of texts that will be available to a schol or district.
4. A "spot bill" affecting the curricular commission, the group which chooses the books.

Doyle explained the legislation in general terms as follows:

The bill eliminating punitive action against teachers and districts is designed to "take away the club from the department of education on a law that has not been enforced anyway."

Under the existing law a teacher and/or district can be fined for not having a required state-printed text in the classroom, and for not using it.

THE BILL AFFECTING the period of adoptions cuts down the mandatory use of a state-printed text from eight years to four. Presently, once a text is adopted, it must be used in classrooms for eight years before another text, or revisions, are considered.

The legislation dealing with the number of texts available to a school or district is designed to permit educators to choose which text they wish to use. This bill could allow multiple adoption of texts by the curricular committe, Doyle said.

"If local districts are given more of a choice, some of the books may be state-printed, some may not," Doyle said. "At least they will know where their books are coming from, when they can get them, and what they will cost."

THE "SPOT BILL" is a bill which has been submited in rough form and can be amended later. "We aren't quite sure what we are going to do with this one," Doyle explained, "but it is a bill we can amend."

The deadline for filing new legislation was Friday, January 25. No new legislation can be submited, with the exception of two bills which can wait until March.

"Each legislator is allowed this prerogative, "Doyle explained." Usually, those two bills are reserved for county or district matters which might arise after the deadline for legislation has passed. I don't know what we will do with those yet."

Spokesmen indicated that local groups interested in textbooks were particularly anxious to see legislation adopted on the punitive measures and the multiple adoption matter, both of which are covered by Doyle's suggested legislation.

Youth Building Is Main Need Teenagers Say

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Number 1 on Orinda teenagers' list of desired facilities is "a large building of some sort, with a kitchen or fountain and with a juke box, where the kids could get together."

That was the view expressed by members of the youth section of Civic Affairs' new committee on teenage needs when they met Tuesday night at the home of Dr. Ralph C. Hall, chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee.

The meeting followed one of January 31, which had also been at the Hall residence, 72 Davis Road. Last week's session was with adult members of the teenage-needs group, but Tuesday night's was by the young people themselves, in the game room.

PRESENT WERE Marilyn Engelhard and Steve DeMaria, co-chairmen of the youth unit; Susan Wasson, secretary; Irene Waschmirth, Jeff Neighbor, Bill Houston, Debora Smith, Dorothy Potter and Gary Lucas.

Marilyn Engelhard and Susan Wasson will meet at 8 p.m. next Tuesday with adult members of the group, at the home of Stanley Allen at 110 Estates Drive, and will report on last Tuesday night's gathering. Allen is chairman of the adult section of the committee on teenager problems.

"The main thing is to get a suitable building of some kind erected soon," Susan said after this week's gathering. "Right now, there just isn't any place where the young people can get together in the evening. We all felt this to be so.

"WE BELIEVE that once the building is up, with kitchen or fountain facilities, the next step should be the placing of such recreation items as a four-lane bowling alley, a shuffleboard and a billiard table in the building.

"These might be financed by donations from organizations.

"We felt that the location of such a youth-center building should be left up to the adults. We'd like it to be away from any highway, and to have ample parking space."

ANOTHER VIEW of the young people was that it would be desirable to have an adult paid by the Orinda Association or some other group, to take care of the building and to prepare meals and snacks, especially on weekends.

A hall in the building might well be in demand as a meeting place, the teenagers felt. They pointed out that it could be rented to adult or youth groups — and that use of it might be furnished free to those who had contributed money for the project.

"Getting a building erected soon is a real need, we all agreed," Susan continued.

"If the adults get behind the idea, I know the kids will, 100 per cent."

Trustees Will Complete Inland Valley Purchase

Orinda School District Trustees will buy 8.7 acres from the Utah Construction Company next year to complete the purchase of the 22-acre site for the proposed Inland Valley School.

The trustees decided Monday to continue discussions of negotiations until their special meeting next Thursday at the Pine Grove School.

THIS SECOND portion of the site will cost the district $40,952. The first parcel, 13.3 acres, was purchased last spring for $68,048. The acreage is already improved, according to District Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff.

The board ordered a survey of the property so an architect's site plan may be started.

The special meeting, to begin at 8 p.m., is being called mainly to open bids for the six classroom addition at Pine Grove.

ARCHITECT Jack Buchter was directed to begin preliminary sketches of additional facilities at Glorietta School. They will include three classrooms, a kindergarten and a library.

Orinda Recreation Director Frank Isola and his assistant, Ted Boyce, told the trustees that the first two months of the Orinda Recreation Program for adults and teenagers were highly successful.

They said that 763 residents had participated in the program since it was begun at the end of last year. Participation in each activity has been rapidly rising, they added.

A REPORT on the program will be made to the trustees every two months.

The board learned that enrollment in Orinda schools is currently 2464, a gain of 235 over last April.

Trustees will attend the area-wide School Trustee Dinner February 28 at 6:30 p.m. in the Acalanes High School cafeteria.

HS Parents to Hear of Student College Needs

College entrance requirements and courses of study will be described by Herman A. Spindt at the meeting of the Miramonte Parents Club Monday at 7:45 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Spindt is director of admissions of the University of California and in charge of relations with other schools at the University.

He will be accompanied by David Stewart, his assistant at the University on leave of absence as Dean of Boys at Acalanes High School.

Following Spindt's talk there will be a question and answer period from the floor.

Mrs. Frank Newman is chairman for the evening, and has announced that there will be a "surprise" contest between 12 Miramonte students and a similar number of parents.

William Ross, Dean of Boys at Miramonte, will give a brief talk on vocational interest tests given all ninth grade students last fall.

A short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Jack Walling, president of the Parents Club. She has announced that the annual fund raising event for the club will be a dessert bridge to be held at the high school on Thursday, April 25.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting by members of the hospitality committee, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Glass.

Arthur Stair Of Moraga Dies at 79

News of the passing of Arthur Henry Stair, long time resident of Moraga, reached his friends last Monday. He was 78.

Mrs. Stair, born December 23, 1878, in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, moved to Moraga in 1922 and established his home in the area, which was then known as Valle Vista.

His wife, Frances C. Stair, passed away the following year.

Members of the Stair family surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Amy C. Morse of New York City and Mrs. Ida Craig of Dover, N. J. Also several nieces and nephews, all residing in the eastern states.

A memorial service was held Wednesday at the Chapel of the Chimes, Oakland, with the Rev. Chauncey Blossom of the Orinda Community Church officiating.

Selby Resigns As President of Safeway Stores

Orindan Milton L. Selby, of 107 Camino Don Miguel, has resigned as president of Safeway Stores, the nation's third largest retailing organization announced Tuesday.

Selby, who has been replaced by Robert A. Magowan of San Francisco, took the office in October, 1955. He will continue as a member of the food company's executive committee and board of directors.

He has served on the board since 1936.

He said his resignation "is consistent with the plans for realignment of management functions throughout the company which were begun almost a year and a half ago when I first assumed the position.

"Since then, we have been simplifying, reducing and decentralizing the management functions wherever possible to increase company efficiency and to quicken its actions."

Magowan praised Selby for his many years service to the company, especially during the past 18 months.

"He provided an invaluable continuity with previous management, philosophy and our newer concept of decentralized, localized authority," the new president said.

Neighbors Will See CD Films

A neighborhood group in Orinda will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward Patterson, 9 Douglas Court, Orinda, Wednesday at 8 p.m., for a Civil Defense showing of two films and a discussion of personal and family preparedness.

Mrs. Eleanor R. Daly, Information and Education officer of the County CD staff, will show the films, "Escape Route," and "Frontlines of Freedom," and will demonstrate some of the civil defense recommendations for survival.

Added Parking May Come From Creek Rerouting

Much of the Orinda Village parking problem may be solved by rechanneling of the San Pablo Creek, which must be moved when the Village Bypass is begun this summer.

At a meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, director Ernest Poll described two plans for realigning the creek. The more expensive of the alternatives would allow for an extra one-half acre of parking behind the Village.

THE FIRST PLAN, originally favored by the County Public Works Department, calls for slight realignment and culverting of the creek.

The second, requested by Leon Woolsey, owner of a portion of land on Orinda Highway, would re-route the creek along a more direct route. This would allow the parking facilities proposed by Poll.

As a representative of merchants of the area, Poll asked the chamber to endorse the second posed parking lot would be plan. The right-of-way to the pro through Woolsey's property.

ALTHOUGH THE Public Works Department would not estimate comparative costs of the two plans, Poll said the county had agreed to cooperate on the alternative rechanneling if Village merchants assumed the extra expense.

"The parking plan souds good," stated President Merle Brown. "Perhaps we should set up a committee to get more information and to work with the county."

Following the president's suggestion, the chamber appointed Poll, Clarence Betz, Jim Hendrickson and Horace Breed to the committee.

HORACE BREED, chairman of the Orinda Parking Authority, said he felt confident that Orinda's parking problems would be solved when the Bypass is completed.

Brown said the new parking proposal should also be presented to the Orinda Association.

In other business, the directors voted to take turns attending Orinda Association meetings each second and fourth Monday nights. Brown, beginning the rotation system, attended the last association meeting.

THE PRESIDENT announced that the chamber's interim street cleaning program would have to be discontinued until new dues came in.

"It is a successful program," he said, "and should be included on next year's budget."

"The Future of Contra Costa and How It will Affect Our Taxes," will be discussed by Iona Booth, manager of the Contra Costa Development Association at the next chamber meeting.

The meeting will be held February 19 at Casa Orinda. Brown urged a large attendance.

To Host Rotary

Members of the Orinda Rotary will be guests of the Miramonte Wheel Club at a noon meeting next Tuesday at the high school.

The Rotary met yesterday at Casa Orinda to commemorate Boy Scout Week.

Heart Attack Takes Life of 'Bing' Crosby

A heart attack suffered two weeks ago resulted in the death Wednesday afternoon of Wilbur D. Crosby, well known Orinda businessman, of 3 Moraga Highway.

Known throughout the community as "Bing," Mr. Crosby died at Peralta Hospital in Oakland, where he was taken following a severe attack. He was 59.

An Orinda resident for the past eight years, he was the owner of Bing's Shaver Shop, 224 Brookwood Road, and co-owner of the new Burger Broiler. Until three years ago, he worked in the Orinda Post Office.

Born in Arkansas in 1897, Mr. Crosby served in the U. S. Army in World War I. Before moving to Orinda, he lived in Yosemite, where he organized a Masonic Lodge.

Continuing his work in the Masons here, he also initiated Orinda's Masonic Lodge.

Surviving him are his wife, Ruth Jewel; son John Crosby of Modesto and daughter Mrs. Ruth Monahan of Los Angeles; and grandchildren John and Linda Crosby and Mark Monahan.

Services will be held in Modesto.

Orinda School To Host Final Reading Meet

A series of discussions of how Johnny learns to read in Orinda will be concluded Thursday evening in the Orinda School auditorium.

Scheduled for 8, the meeting will be the fourth conducted by the Parents Curriculum Committee of Orinda in response to inquiries about the school reading program.

Similar meetings in each of the other elementary schools have led to lively discussions by many interested parents, according to Mrs. F. C. Newman, Curriculum Committee chairman.

Mrs. A. Yedidia will moderate next Thursday's session. The reading program will be explained by Philip Lambert, school curriculum coordinator, and William Gaskell, Orinda School principal.

Mrs. Georgia Cooper, speech consultant for the Orinda schools, will also be present to answer questions.

Wintry Orinda Cold Continues

The snowfall of last week was now only a pleasant memory, but Orinda weather remained definitely wintry during this past week.

Rainfall amounted to .12 inches (it occurred last Saturday), bringing the weather-year's total so far, since July 1, to 9.78 inches.

Here are the high-and-low temperatures:

	High	Low
January 31	55	24
February 1	52	42
February 2	52	29
February 3	56	23
February 4	58	24
February 5	59	26
February 6	54	32

Association Will Push For New Area Hospital

About 60 doctors in the central county area Sunday indicated that they are eager to develop plans for building a $1 million non-profit hospital in the Lafayette-Walnut Creek area, serving also Danville, Pleasant Hill, Orinda and Moraga.

They organized into the "New Communities Hospital Association" and appointed committees which will work out ideas before the next general meeting, not scheduled.

An executive committee, composed of:

Doctors Kenneth Caldwell of Lafayette, Irving Fine and John Hutch of Pleasant Hill and Harold Robinson and Marvin Epstein of Walnut Creek will meet today, however, to talk about the size of the hospital and possible sites.

Dr. Hanson said that the Association hopes to gain the support and advice of many area doctors, community groups and interested persons.

The cost of a 75 or 100-bed hospital would be about $1 million, he said.

Its cenral plant should be large enough so the hospital can expand in later years, he added.

"WE ARE NOT inteersted in a doctor's hospital as such. Some people misunderstood, and thought this would be a private hospital. That is not the case, he said.

"We want it to serve all the communities in the central area of the county, to meet the growing needs of the increasing population.

"We want to get the doctors behind it, so we can see what really can be done.

Dr. Hanson indicated that money is a problem.

"It is hoped we can raise funds by a drive for donations from public minded citizens, and part of the cost will be underwritten by the doctors themselves. There may be other means of raising money, too.

"THE DOCTORS present at the meeting Sunday were definitely unanimous in favoring building a new hospital. Several were there from Lafayette, Danville and one from Concord.

"One doctor from Oakland was there, as he lives in Happy Valley and is interested in our plans, said Hanson.

The Sun also learned that plans studied several years ago for creation of a new hospital north of Walnut Creek, towards Concord, were never resolved.

Difficulty on deciding on a site was a major stumbling block at that time.

The meeting was held Sunday at the new Diablo Therapy Center. It was the second such gathering.

Discussed were the distances to hospitals in Concord, Martinez, Oakland and San Francisco.

Dr. Ranker Dies Of Heart Attack

Last rites were held yesterday at Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints in Walnut Creek for well-known Lafayette/ physician and Mormon church leader Dr. Emery R. Ranker.

Dr. Ranker, who lived at 3991 Happy Valley Road, died at work in his Oakland office Monday of a heart attack. He was 60 years old.

Bishop Mark Bickeley, of the Walnut Creek Ward of the church, officiated at the service.

The doctor had conducted his medical practice in Oakland since 1923. He was Walnut Creek Stake president of the LDS Church, and past president of the Berkeley Stake.

He was a member of the American Legion and belonged to the Alameda County and American Medical Associations.

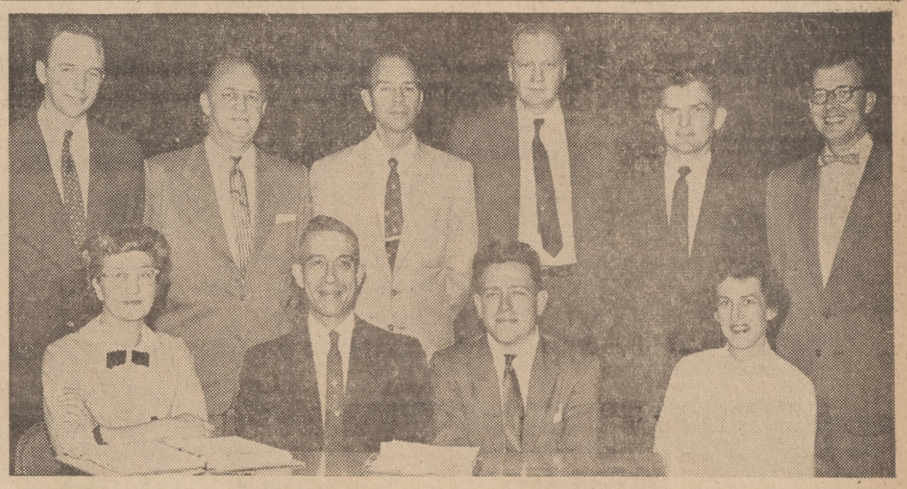
Surviving are his wife, Irene, of Lafayette; a son, Dr. Emery R. Ranker Jr., of San Francisco; two daughters, Mrs. Jean R. Gardner of Detroit and Elaine Ranker of Boston; a brother, Floyd Ranker of Yreka; and three sisters, Mrs. Bernice Geary, Long Beach, Mrs. Mildred Shipard, Glen Ellen, and Mrs. Hilda Dudley, San Francisco.

Supervisor Hurt

Ray Taylor, chairman of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was injured Sunafter a fall from a bucking horse.

Taylor was riding on his ranch in Martinez when the accident occurred. Taylor was taken to Martinez Community Hospital, where his condition was reported as being good.

Ivan Goyak of Richmond will take over Taylor's duties as chairman of the board until Taylor returns to his duties.



ORINDA ASSOCIATION directors for 1957 are headed by President Gene Estes (standing at right rear) and Vice-President Fred Twining (standing next to Estes). The others on the board are, left to right: Seated — Claire Ward, secretary; Mel Arighi, director-at-large, who was 1956 president; Marvin Baker, treasurer, and Dorothy Adie; standing — Norman Cunningham, Arthur Flint, Bob Walpole and Holland DuBois. —Sun photo by Mattson

INJURED IN AN two car crash on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Oakland Street in Lafayette last Friday was David Schindar of Oakland. William Morrison of Lafayette, driver of the other car involved, was injured also. The case is under investigation by the California Highway Patrol.

PH Group Hits County Board Gambling Action

The Pleasant Hill Civic Council informed the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors that its action in appointing a committee to study a 2 a.m. closing for cardrooms was not what the Council has asked of the Board.

John Scaglione, secretary of the council, told the Supervisors that the council wished complete abatement of card rooms and the abolition of pin ball machines in all the unincorporated areas of the county.

"THE ACTION of the Board of Supervisors in completely unacceptable," said Scaglione.

After the civic council unanimously passed a resolution asking for the removal of pinball machines and the abatement of card rooms, Scaglione drafted the following letter to the board.

"After exhaustive committee investigation and study, and after due deliberation by the ten member organizations and their delegates to the Council, the Pleasant Hill Civic Council at its regular meeting on Monday, 21 January, 1957, unanimously voted to go on record in support of Sheriff Harry Broawn's proposed ordinances with respect to draw poker and pinball machines.

"We therefore request that these ordinances receive favorable action by the Board of Supervisors.

"The Pleasant Hill Civic Council does not believe, however, that these proposed ordinances are a complete solution, for a complete solution would be the abolition of draw poker and pin ball machines throughout the County.

"If this Council can further assist the Board of Supervisors in this or other matters, we would be pleased to hear from you," the letter stated.

Mary A. Smith, deputy clerk of the board of supervisors informed the civic council that the board had taken action.

The action, as reported in a letter to the civic council from the board was as follows:

"CHAIRMAN RAY S. Taylor of the Board of Supervisors has appointed the following to serve on a Committee to consider and study the matter of whether it would be advisable to establish a closing time of 2 a.m. for draw poker games: District Attorney, Francis Collins; Sheriff Harry A. Brown; Desmand Teeter, administrator and Supervisor Joe Silva.

"The Board has taken the matter of your proposal for abolishing pinball machines in the county, under consideration," states the letter from the Board to the Civic Council.

Scaglione appeared in opposition to the letter and said that the 2 a.m. closing was "just a minor portion of the overall problem."

THE SUPERVISORS retorted with statements that the Pleasant Hill Civic Council was the only organization in the county to oppose card rooms and pinball machines.

Bud Buchanan, fourth district supervisor, stated he couldn't ban card rooms he'd have all the farmers down on his neck who like to play a little poker.

Ivan Goyak, vice chairman of the Board who is acting in the capacity of chairman since Taylor was injured in a horseback accident Sunday, stated he had never heard a complaint about gambling in the county.

BUCHANAN BACKED Goyak with a similiar statement that he also had never heard of gambling problem.

A recent grand jury urged the board of supervisors to abolish all pinball machines.

As the two supervisors were making their claims of never hearing complaints, Miss Smith informed them there was a letter on file from the Concord Area Council of Church Women which represents 19 different churches and groups.

Goyak pointed out that it would be necessary to conduct a further study of the closing hour and other "aspects" of the situation.

SCAGLIONE STATED that the Board of Supervisors would be working in the best interest of all the unicorporated areas if the ordinance banning pin ball machines and card rooms would be enacted as quickly as possible.

"There have been enough studies and committees, we need action now." said Scaglione.

In a letter drafted by the church women's group it is stated that immediate enactment of an ordinance banning card rooms is needed. "Such establishments can not be tolerated in our communities."

One reason that many people have never sent letters to the board, Scaglinone commented to the supervisors, is that they never expect you to do anything about their letters or the gambling in Contra Costa.

GOYAK INSTRUCTED the committee to study the problem not only in the 2 a.m. closing time, but in "all phases." The matter of the pinball machines was to also be investigated by the group.

A meeting was expected to be called sometime next week to discuss the proposed sheriff's ordinance, according to observers.

Mel Nielsen, second district supervisor said to Scaglione.

"I'm in favor of control of pin balls machines and draw poker if they're giving trouble.

"I WANT TO wait and see what the committe says befor I decide just what to do. That fact that Brown is on the committee means that it's not a one sided committee and that the sheriff's opinions will have weight on the committee.

"Sheriff Brown at first wanted everything closed down. A week or so ago he admitted that if that happened things would go underground and it would be harder to keep track of them. We should hear from the people," he concluded.

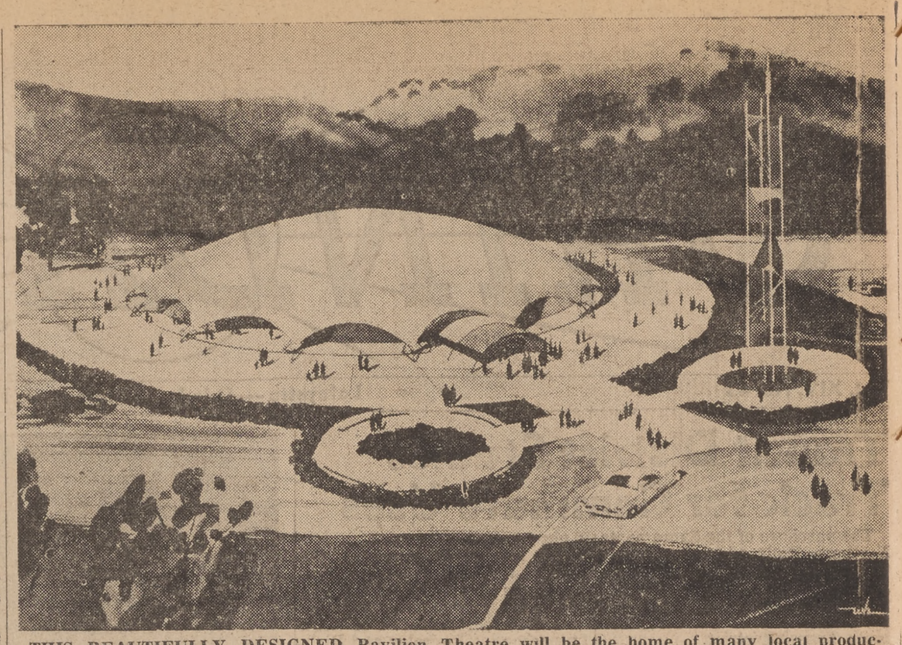
At the supervisors meeting Scaglione mentioned to the board that the Sheriff had said that under the present system of no control for card rooms, the sheriff's office had no idea or very little idea of where most of the cardrooms are located.

If there is a control the sheriff's office could keep its eye on these cardroom establishments, said Scaglione.

"It would be hardly worth while to run an underground pinball operation, since all machines would be outlawed and stiff fines imposed on those operating the machines. Machines found in the county would be destroyed according to the proposed sheriff's ordinance," said Scaglione.

FOLLOWING THE action of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, the Lafayette Improvement Association Board of Directors Wednesday night unanimously adopted a motion by W. F. Funk a director: "That the board of directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association favors the banning of pinball machines and poker parlors from the unicorporated areas of Contra Costa County."

The Lafayette Improvers directed that this action be communicated to the Board of Supervisors, with a copy to the Grand Jury.



THIS BEAUTIFULLY DESIGNED Pavilion Theatre will be the home of many local productions if plans continue as they now promise. The proposed theatre will be built on a 10 acre site on Ygnacio Valley Road a half mile East of Walnut Creek and will provide a setting for light operas, serious theatre and community productions. It will seat 1800 people.

Dads to Brighten Nursery School

Fathers of the Orinda Nursery School will be given a chance to demonstrate their usefulness as handymen next Monday night, Lincoln's Birthday Eve, at the school's annual "work night."

The hungry, hardworking dads will be first fed, and then turned loose with scrub brushes, paint brushes, hammers and nails for an evening's do-it-yourself program. The work will restore the school's equipment, grounds, and clasrooms to their original bright and shiny condition.

According to Mrs. T. G. Cullen, Maintenance chairman, the row boat, donated by the Orinda Duck Club, and recently the most popular means of transportation offered children at the school, will be given a bright new paint job.

Arrangements for the potluck supper, served at six o'clock in Felolwship Hall of the Community Church, are being made by Mrs. John Saunders.

Assisting her are Mesdames Fred L. Braumoeller, Paul Weber, Russell Usenger, Douglas Raaka, Jack Simpson, Millard Simon, Thomas Curtis, Robert Stewart, Jack Berard and Addson Thompson.

The Nursery School will be closed Tuesday on Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

Contractor Sued For Divorce

Orinda contractor Hayden Robert Kleyn-Schoorel was sued for divorce in Contra Costa Superior Court recently on grounds of cruelty by his wife, Cecelia Kleyn Schoorel, of 3341 Betty Lane, Lafayette.

She asks custody of the children, aged 9, 7 and 5, alimony and child support totaling $100 weekly and award of the home, household furniture and furnishings, an auto and a division of other community property, including bank accounts and insurance policies.

The couple wed in Monroe, La., in June, 1945, and separated last August 15, the complaint says.

Shopping Center Merger in View

A thriving business center with plenty of parking may be in the making on Orinda Highway, where the seven story Phillips shopping center building is nearing completion.

Charles E. Phillips, of 109 Estates Drive, owner of the $150,000 building, is reported to have been discussing a possible merger with the owners of two lots on the south side of his property.

THEY ARE Maynard Buehler of 110 Orinda Highway, and Goodwin Huser, 14 Tarry Lane. Husar recently bought his parcel from Chis Ganiats.

According to Buehler, the three have been discussing the possibilities of merging the three lots for another building and parking space.

Buehler said that a 3000 square foot building could be constructed should the merger take place. He added that there would be enough room for 2½ times that space for parking.

"I AM PLANNING to build," he stated. "I have preliminary sketches but would begin all over again if we could combine the properties."

Meanwhile, Al Baer of the Village Shoe Shop and John Ogden of Ogden's Tween Togs are preparing to move their businesses into the big Phillips building.

The Village Cleaners, owned by Ernest Poll, will move into the building vacated by Baer.

A TOTAL OF seven stores will be housed in the big redwood-anused brick building.

Depth of the building is 330 feet on the north side and 276 feet on the south, and the width of each end is 100 feet.

Entrances to the stores is along a depth of the structure, at right angles to Orinda Highway.

Only some paving and finishing touches remain to be done before its opening.

On January 14, 1891, the Contra Costa census gives the population of the county as 13,515 — Whites, 12,978; Chinese, 468; Indians, 4; Colored, 57; and Japanese, 8.

Poker Parlors Pinballs Are Prime Targets

Banning of all pinball machines and poker parlors from unincorporated sections of the county was urged Wednesday night by the Lafayette Improvement Association board.

Meeting at the office of President George V. Walker at 3557 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, the board, on motion of Director W. F. Funk, unanimously voted "that the Board of Directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association favors the banning of pin ball machines and poker parlors from the unincorporated areas of Contra Costa County."

The board directed that this action be communicated to the Board of Supervisors, with a carbon copy to be sent to the County Grand Jury, according to Secretary Charles Baake.

THE ACTION of the directors was consistent with the stand taken several years ago by a previous board of the association.

At that time, Lafayette had a couple of draw poker parlors, and the Lafayette Improvement Association tried futilely to get the Board of Supervisors to enact legislation against such establishments.

Only the concerted activity of opponents prevented another scheduled draw poker parlor from opening.

ON ONE OCCASION, the then supervisor from the Second District H. L. (Jack) Cummings, stepped out of the chair at a Board of Supervisors meeting (since as chairman he could not make a motion) and offered a motion against draw poker parlors.

However, Cummings' motion died for lack of a second.

Lafayette and other sections of the central county were also plagued by pinball machines at that time.

SUPERVISOR Mel Nielsen of the Second District was asked by The Sun Wednesday if he is going to support proposals for ordinances to control draw poker and to abolish pin balls, as urged by Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

"I'm in favor of control of pinballs and draw poker if they're giving trouble," Nielsen replied.

A committee has now been appointed, consisting of Supervisor Joe Silva, chairman; Sheriff Brown, County Administrator Desmond Teeter and someone from the district attorney's office.

"THIS COMMITTEE is going to make an investigation regarding proper control. It will make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors. The committee will meet next week.

"I want to wait and see what the committee recommends before I decide just what to do.

Pine Grove 8th Graders To Form New Rec Club

While Miramonte High School members of the Teenage Club prepare for their Sunday snow trip, plans are being laid to form a new and separate Recreation Program club for Pine Grove 8th graders.

The new group will be formed next Thursday night when Pine Grove 8th graders meet with Recreation Director Frank Isola and advisors William Hester and Donald Wacks at 8 p.m. at the school.

ALL 8TH grade students are invited to attend. According to Isola, the new club's activities will be similar to those of the Miramonte club.

As in the high school club meetings, business will be conducted for one hour, and one hour will be devoted to games and recreation in the Pine Grove gym.

The Pine Grovers are anticipating such activities as the high school Teenage Club's snow trip. Some 75 Miramonte students will gather Sunday at/4:15 a.m. at Pine Grove.

THEY WILL board busses and head for Echo Summit, where skiing, sleds, toboggans and general fun in the snow await them.

From now on, the high schoolers will meet on the first and third Thursday evenings of the month at Pine Grove. The 8th grade club will be meeting on the second and fourth Thursday nights.

Miramonte teenagers met last night to make final preparations for the snow trip and to discuss future projects and activities.

THE FIRST of a series of Dog Obedience Training classes, held last Saturday, "met with considerable success," according to Isola.

Classes, sponsored by the Orinda Recreation Department, are being held each Saturday at Pine Grove.

Isola emphasized that the classes are being paid for by owners who have enrolled their dogs. "Not one cent," he said, "is coming from the school district."

Revolution Debated by 5th Graders

"British Tories" and American "Revolutionists" are having another go at it this week in Jack Clark's 5th grade classroom at Sleepy Hollow School.

As a part of the class study of the American revolutionary period, pupils are debating the pros and cons of the war and the actions which precipitated it.

In the series of debates, six pupils are representing the british, and six speak for the colonists. The remainder of the class is sitting as a "Continental Congress" to judge the arguments.

Meanwhile, in Mrs. Inez Lillie's 3rd grade class, Indian music is filling the air. The children have learned an Indian song written by music teacher Charles Pendleton.

They are now learning to play the song on their song flutes. Additional orchestration will come from the class's authentic Indian tom-tom, and the three tom-toms built by class members.

First grade children in Mrs. Annelore Stone's class will soon be writing "Child's-eye views" of the Sleepy Hollow teachers. The pupils have been assigned to observe the teachers and will discuss their observations in class.

All will then select the most important characteristics of the teachers and write of them in the paper.

Breakfast Club Formed by 'Y'

The new Hi-Y Breakfast Club was organized for Pleasant Hill High School boys Monday at the YMCA headquarters, 1537 Sunnyavle Avenue.

The club meets for breakfast on Mondays at 7 with the members taking turns preparing the meal. Thirty-five cents is charged for each member for food.

The following members were elected to serve as the first club officers: President, Gary Adams; vice-president, James Jorrick; secretary, Mike Kimball; treasurer, Charles Bonney.

Other members are John Ashley, Tom Collins, Louie Marracci, John Messer, Terry Nevin, Ray O'Day and Don Travis.

AAUW to Hold Group Meetings

The Orinda branch of the American Association of University Women has scheduled two section meetings next week.

Tuesday at 8 p.m. the international relations chairman, Mrs. Louis Lazaroff, will introduce Richard Pfaff, a graduate student at University of California who has spent a year at American University at Beirut, Lebanon. His talk on "The Middle East: Checkerboard of World War III?" will explain factors in the present crisis.

This meeting, to which husbands and guests are invited, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Karplus.

There will be pictures shown which were taken in France last summer by Smed Ambler, a young student sent by the American Field Service, when the travel group meets at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. John Dorr is chairman, and Mrs. J. L. Chapple will be hostess to this gathering.

Baer Will Move His Shoe Shop

Al Baer will move his Village Shoe Shop from 83 Orinda Highway to the new Phillips building "around March 1," when the Phillips building is expected to be ready for occupancy, Baer announced yesterday.

The seven-unit Phillips building, a ranch-style shopping center, is being constructed by Charles E. Phillips in Orinda's Planned Neighborhood Business District. It is on the west side of Orinda Highway, across from Santa Maria Way.

The new address of the Village Shoe Shop will be 21 Orinda Highway. The new store will occupy two of the units at the Phillips building. "Weather permitting, the place should be ready around March 1," Baer said.

Baer, who has been operating his present store for three years, said his new store — which will keep the name "Village Shoe Store" — will have considerably larger floor space, increased facilities and better equipment.

"The Village Shoe Store will continue to carry a complete line of children's shoes, including school shoes; ladies' and girls' dress flats and men's and women's casuals," Baer stated.

Bishop Rezoning

The sale of the 4000-acre Bishop Ranch in the San Ramon area is reportedly in the negotiation stage, and the price will be about $5 millions.

Representatives of Marshall, McClellan, Cosgrove and Company of Los Angeles have said that they are talking with owners of the T. B. Bishop Company.

The area has for a long time been viewed as a princely estate for subdividers, who would have room for thousands of homes.

Also involved in the negotiations are lands of the Corona del Mar in Santa Barbara area.

ENTHUSIASTIC FANS cheered and yelled at The Sun's Father-and-Children Night at St. Mary's College gym in Moraga, where the Galloping Gaels of St. Mary's defeated the Lions of Loyola University of Los Angeles, 66-42. Each adult who came with a coupon from The Sun was able, by paying only $1, to take in as many children as desired, free.

CHATTING during halftime were Brother S. Albert (right), president of St. Mary's College, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gravin and their 9-year-old daughter, Charlotte. Their 13-year-old daughter, Cynthia, was also at the event with them. The community project was sponsored by The Sun in cooperation with St. Mary's College.

THE URGENT NEED for blood donations was pointed out this week by Mrs. Roger Dor, an employee of Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek. She is shown with four bottles of plasma. Three of the bottles are empty and one full. All four bottles are needed to even meet the demand for plasma in Central Contra Costa. Call Kaiser to make your donation of blood now.

Hundreds Cheer St. Mary's Sun Sponsored Hoop Tilt

Approximately 1000 fans of St. Mary's College viewed the First Annual Fathers-and-Children Night last Friday during the St. Marys-Loyola basketball game played at the college.

Playing exceptional ball before the overflowing crowd the Gaels put on a show that will long be remembered by cub scouts, girls scoutes and a multitude of other youngsters taking advantage of the Sun-St Mary's sponsored night.

BUT NOT ONLY the fathers took advantage of the $1 per adult and all the children under age 16 admitted free. Many, many mothers were seen in the stands cheering on the Galloping Gaels of Moraga with their entire girl scout and Brownie troops.

As the Gaels peppered the hoop from every corner of the floor, and rain started to pour outside on the campus hundreds of Sun coupon holders were turned back to be asked to return the following night for another St. Mary's quint contest with Pepperdine University of Southern California as its challenger.

Although 700 seats had been reserved and 850 were admitted, again Saturday night hundreds of children and parents arrived to watch basketball at its best.

SUN EDITOR and Publisher Herman Silverman was introduced to the throng of fans Friday night by Denny Garrehy, public relations director of the Christian Brothers directed college.

Silverman welcomed the crowd to St. Marys for the event and reminded the boys and parents of The Sun-Sports and Games Clinic to be Sunday (see seperate story).

He urged all to show their appreciation to St. Marys College and to Brother Albert, president of St. Marys, for the opportunity of seeing the Gaels for such a nominal price.

Following the spontaneous ovation for Brother Albert and the College, Brother Albert welcomed the fathers, mothers, and children to the campus.

DURING THE half time festivities the Berkeley High School Band played for the enjoyment of the onlookers and the Parkmead Intermediate School of Walnut Creek tipped off against the Pine Grove Intermediate School of Orinda.

As the Horsemen from the Hill returned to the boards to face the Lions from Southern California, the crowd settled down to take in another 15 minutes of hard hitting floor play during the Sun-St. Marys First Annual Father and Children's night.

One cub scout was heard saying while leaving the court . . . "Hey Dad, when can we come back again?"

'Bootleg Subdivision' Law To Receive Group Study

A proposed ordinance to halt "bootleg subdivisions" will be studied by a group of local residents and real estate men. The group will be appointed in the near future, according to the county planning commission.

At the January 21 meeting of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council a resolution was unanimously passed asking the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors to adopt an ordinance stopping so called bootleg subdivisions.

AT THAT TIME Ralph Becker, chairman of the powerful planning and zoning committee explained to the civic council that bootleg subdivisions were those which are pushed through the Planning Commission under the guise of a three of four lot development. The next year the property owner again chops up adjacent lots and so forth for three or four years until there is a 12 or 15 home subdivision with no drainage or flood control in the area and other necessary improvements for which the developer should be responsible.

Becker urged that a two-house subdivision ordinance be enacted and enforced. This ordinance would require any person building on more than one lot to submit a subdivision map to the county planning commission and the board of supervisors.

Nick Carter, president of the real estate Board of Contra Costa County said: "The Board realize that there is a problem. Certainly there have been abuses which should be corrected. We should put teeth in the present State Law which already covers this matter.

"AS FAR AS the county we should work out this change very carefully and a committee should be appointed to study this," said Carter.

At Tuesday night's Contra Costa County Planning Commission meeting the commission stated that it would appoint a 20 man committee to report back by March 5.

William Anderson, of the real estate board told the commission that the industry was not opposed to the proposed ordinance but that the industry would like to see further study of the matter

Dave Brubeck To Talk Monday

Dave Brubeck, one of America's most popular jazz artists, will lecture on "Progressive Jazz" at 8 p.m. Monday in De La Salle Lounge on the St. Mary's Campus in Moraga.

Brubeck is widely known as one of the pioneers of progressive jazz. His appearance as a speaker will be the fourth of a series of cultural presentations under the sponsorship of Alpha Pi Gamma Upsilon, student honor society at St. Mary's. Admission is free, and the public is invited.

Chairman of the student committee on arrangements is Ned Atchison of Oakland. Among those serving with him on the committee are Jack Hobbs of Moraga and Darryl Gunther of Lafayette.

Insurance Unit To Hear Lampe

Alfred E. Lampe will speak on "Insurance Overseas" at the Monday evening dinner meeting of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents. Lampe is well informed on this topic inasmuch as he is Pacific Coast manager of the American Foreign Insurance Association whose office is in San Francisco, according to a group spokesman.

The County Insurance Agents will conduct their regular monthly meeting at the El Monte Restaurant in Concord at 7 p.m. Monday.

Hats of Larks To Depict Jobs At Gala Party

A gala evening is planned for February 16, when Lafayette Auxiliary of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold its fifth annual Mardi Gras party at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek.

An innovation will mark the affair this year. Instead of having the usual costume ball, the ladies are being asked to wear headdresses depicting their husbands' occupation.

Already husbands and wives are busily at work trying to come up with something unique in the way of a chapeau for the big night.

If past Mardi Gras' have been any criterion, the judges, Herman Silverman and Earle Pierce, will find it most difficult task to choose the winners.

St. Andrews Sets Women's Meet

The Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will meet Monday, February 11, at the church, at 8 p.m., with President Barbara Newacheck presiding.

The program for the evening will consist of a panel on "What is Spiritual Life?", directed by Betsie Crothers, spiritual life chairman, with a discussion following.

Oakland Man Attempts Suicide In Orinda Home

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O'Callahagn entered their home at 2 Camino del Diablo, Orinda, after a day's outing Tuesday to find a man near death lying in a pool of blood in the den.

The victim was the O'Callaghans' friend, Robert Hugh Hamilton, 61, an Oakland contractor, who had used the Orinda home to attempt suicide with a single-barrel shotgun.

Hamilton, who blasted away a portion of the right side of his face, was rushed to the county hospital in Martinez, where he was still in critical condition yesterday.

The couple found the grisly scene when they entered through the home's locked front door. They had noted Hamilton's pickup truck parked in their driveway, sheriff's deputies said.

Hamilton had brought his own shells, the deputies said, but had borrowed O'Callaghan's shotgun for the lethal attempt, which apparently occurred four or five hours before he was found.

The victim reportedly left a suicide note indicating that he was despondent over financial and marital difficulties.

Investigators said they think he entered the home by crawling through a washroom skylight.

Neighbors reported seeing the truck earlier in the afternoon and hearing two shots, one of which Hamilton apparently shot into his mouth.

The O'Callaghans summoned an Orinda doctor and the Walnut Creek Ambulance Service.

Gregory Gardens Dance Plans Set

The plans Al Kitchel and Pat Heagerty have for the coming Gregory Gardens Parents Club Valentine Dance to be held at the Veterans Memorial Hall, Lafayette, on February 16, from 9 to 1 a.m., are fantastic, according to a group spokesman.

They have been working for weeks on this very social, once a year affair of the club. Pat Heagerty, having been chairman last year with Mrs. Heagerty, announced he anticipates the largest turnout and best dance ever!

A myster-i-o-u-s "grapefruit has been added to the list of variety dances already planned. The grapefruit dance will be explained the night of the dance and a mystery prize will be awarded the winners.

"This sounds like an evening of fun for all ages of the club and the public is cordially invited, said the spokesman. The committee members and their wives will be busy ths next week makng party sandwches which they will serve at midnight.

The ladies are Mesdames Pat Heagerty, Fred Mendershausen, Robert VerSteeg, Robert Hurley, Al Kitchel, Bill Stone, Jack Paddock, Janet LaRocque and Georgiana Luces.

Mrs. Robert Hurley, decorations chairman, announced her committee is out of breath from blowing balloons!

The balloons will be floating down from the net holding them. For those looking for dancing, munching and a good time, contact Pat Heagerty, MU 2-2657, or Al Kitchel, MU 2-1865, for tickets. Proceeds of the dance are added to the funds for further benefit of their children's education of the Gregory Gardens Elementary

Opera Star to Sing Hit Songs

Mezzo-soprano Inez Matthews will be one of the soloists with the De Paur Opera Gala, which will present in concert form excerpts from three Broadway opera hits at the Opera House Monday evening, under the auspices of the California Civic Music & Arts Foundation.

The program will include highlights from "Four Saints in Three Acts," "Carmen Jones" and "Porgy and Bess."

Miss Matthews starred on Broadway in "Carmen Jones," "Lost in the Stars" and "Four Saints."

Grand Jury Urges Food Inspection Program

Philip Bancroft Jr., foreman of the Contra Costa County Grand Jury, announced this week that the jury strongly supports an ordinance to tighten the inspection and licensing of food-handling establishments.

Such an ordinance has long been urged by Dr. Henrik Blum, county health officer, and has been actively urged in Sun editorials.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has proposed an ordinance requiring quarterly sanitary inspections and licensing of such food establishments.

"THE COUNTY HEALTH Department is no longer able to inspect each food handling establishment even once a year," Bancroft said. "The 1956-57 grand jury recommends that the necessary steps be taken to provide this inspection, essential for the protection of public health.

"The grand jury has investigated the situation very carefully and concludes that this is a very serious problem."

The grand jury's views were presented to the board of supervisors Tuesday "requesting your early attention to this matter."

A draft of the ordinance, prepared by the health department, will be available for inspection and study by interested persons by February 19, the board announced.

THE PROPOSED ordinance would institute the first mandatory sanitary inspections of restaurants, grocery stores and other establishments handling food.

At present the county inspects only those on which complaints are received.

The supervisors are still debating methods of raising funds to pay for the inspection program which it is estimated will cost $22,000 annually.

Possibilities being considered by the board include general taxation, sales tax revenue, business license fees, inspection fees, or a combination.

Kensington Turns City Idea Down

What might have been the 12th city in Contra Costa County will remain an unincorporated area called Kensington, following rejection of the plan by residents at the polls Tuesday.

Kensington residents decided they wanted to "stay as they are" by a vote of more than two to one, with the unofficial tally results 867 "yes" and 1754 "no." This included the vote of 72 per cent of the community, compared to 66 per cent which turned out in a prior election to decide the question of annexation to El Cerrito.

Kensington is a hill-top community adjacent to Richmond and El Cerrito in the western part of Contra Costa County.

Donald Ross, spokesman for the winning group, commented, "It's quite obvious that we want to be left alone." However, he suggested a closer coordination in community relations and hoped for a "more representative community organization to deal with community problems."

Samual Holmes, who ran for city council and advocated incorporation, said "I think we will be dissolved and there will be no more Kensington in five years."

He said he felt that part of the community would annex to El Cerrito, while part would go to Richmond, and Kensington would lose its identity.

Counter Replies To Supervisor Race Questions

When asked if he will run for supervisor of the County's Third District, Walnut Creek Mayor E. C. Counter Jr., told The Sun, "Why, I have plenty of heavy work ahead as mayor and councilman this year and next year."

He cited the administrative tasks involved in the Little Master Plan and other city projects.

He added, however, "I have read your lists of names with interest. There certainly seem to be several good candidates.

"It would be a wonderful thing in anyone's life to be elected supervisor. I have just never considered such an honor," he added.

The election will be in November next year. Incumbent is Ray Taylor of Pleasant Hill, an insurance man.

Wm. Shaw Joins Sun Ad Staff

William O. Shaw has joined The Sun staff as an advertising representative. Announcement of the addition of Shaw to the staff was made this week by Herman Silverman, Sun editor and publisher.

Shaw has a wide background of newspaper and advertising experience. Prior to coming to The Sun he was advertising manager and general director of the Killeen (Texas) Daily Herald for almost two years.

Before his association with the Kileen Herald, Shaw held positions in Michigan and Santa Monica, Calif.

In Michigan he was advertising manager of the Dearborn Press for two years, and advertising manager of the Northeast Detroiter for two years before that. Prior to this work, he was an advertising salesman for the Santa Monica Independent.

Women Ask Rezoning for 19-Acre Site

Planning Commissioners continued the hearing on the request of Dorothy Beebower and Dorothy Smith to rezone their 19-acre property north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and east of Pleasant Hill Road in Lafayette.

The women are asking that the land, located just west of Grant Lane, be rezoned from the existing Transition Residential Agricultural District (R-A) to a Multiple Family Residential District (M-R).

As the property in intersected by another landowner's site, the planners continued the hearing in order to ascertain whether rezoning would also be requested for an intersecting piece of land.

In other action Tuesday, the commission denied the request of Robert Waschmirth to expand his Moraga Nursery property on Moraga Highway.

Condon Listed As Recovering

Former Congressman Robert L. Condon, 44, was reported "better" this week after being admitted to Kaiser Foundation Hospital n reportedly critical condition last Friday.

Condon, who formerly represented the Sixth Congressional District, is said to be suffering from penumonia and yellow jaundice.

His home is at 1505 Boulevard Way, Saranap.

Boys, Big Leaguers to Meet Sunday at Acalanes Field

As impressive a roster of big-time baseball players and former players as ever assembled in this area will be on the Acalanes High School field Sunday afternoon, when the Sun-Sports and Games baseball clinic gets under way.

Starting at 12:30, this should be an exciting two hours of instruction and practice for high school and eighth grade boys in the Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill areas!

There will no "hitches" since the clinic can move inside the Acalanes gymnasium should it rain.

THE YOUNGER boys, seventh grade level and under, have been invited to come to the clinic and learn all they can by watching! Mel Alamano of Sports and Games has said that there will be clinics for them later on!

There will be talks by the major leaguers, and then practical instruction at each of the nine positions at the diamond. The boys can choose their positions.

Bill Rigney, manager of the New York Giants, has told Alamano that he will be there. Most of the "pros" will be in full uniform.

Here are thhe instructors for Sunday:

DON FERRARESE, Baltimore Orioes, pitcher; Damon Hayes, ex-Oaks pitcher; Ray Robb, Detroit scout; Bernie de Viveriros, Detroit Tiger instructor; Ferris Fain, American League batting champ; Harry Cookie Lavagetto, Washington Senator and former Brooklyn Dodger.

Bill Howerton, ex-New York Giant; Augie Galan, former Oaks manager and Chicago Cub; Ed Montague, New York Giant scout and former big leaguer.

Al Steele, former San Francisco Seal; Chuck Christie, former Seattle catcher; Bill Raimondi, former major leaguer and ex-Oaks manager, no wwith Chicago Cubs; Vince DiMaggio, former Pittsburgh Pirate and Coast Leaguer.

Boys who plans to attend should use the coupon below:

Faint hearts ne'er won you know who

This being HEART MONTH, the sentimental season, we continue our custom of pleasin', in rhyme, to wish you a special St. Valentine's time!

DAN CUPID IS DUE HERE on Thursday, next week . . . NO time, Dear Hubbies, to be forgetful or meek! So just to remind you, in our busy lives . . . Circle the date (14th) and REMEMBER your wives!

On your way home, tuck under your arm, a trinket or treasure, a token or charm . . . to show how you feel for that GEM of a wife, the one who's shared with you THE BEST YEARS OF YOUR LIFE!

You might help with the dishes, or pull up a chair, next to HERS at the TV (You take it from there!), or take her out on the town, pick out a good show . . . It all helps towards saying what you want her to know!

A box of good candy, beribboned in red, might just come in handy and "say it" instead . . . Or say it with flowers, (one gardenia will do!) VERY EFFECTIVE on her, and (shining knight!) or you, too!

St. Valentine's Day's close to every gal's heart. Now go to it, Mister, and you do your part! (Need some help from Dan Cupid? How's this for a start?)

SENTIMENTAL SALUTATIONS, dripping hearts and flowers, for the Kendalls and Kerrigans, the Busseys and Bowers . . . Candy-heart mottos w/provocative greetings, for the Tesmans and Tyrrells, Kellys, Kirbys and Keatings.

Some people collect them

Pick out a BIG card, a real sort of Dilly, from Winfree (that's Jim) to his very own Millie!

AND EDGE ONE WITH LACE, old-fashioned and fawncy, for good Mrs. Blossom from her Mr. Chauncey!

Paste on some hearts for the Hanks, Hughes and Hauers . . . For the Roths, Riegers, Reillys, Ratcliffs, add a few flowers!

FROM AN ELEGANT VERY VICTORIAN selection . . . add one to John and Evie Parker's collection!

A vintage valentine, faded and rare, for antique-lovers everywhere! And one extra-special for Mr. Phair.

A nosegay of violets for the Boyens, John to Rosita . . . for the Bridwells, the Randalls, Bowersox, (George to Rita!) . . . and a dozen red roses for the Fernstens and Marks, and a dozen more beauties for the Starkmans and Starks!

Forget-me-nots blue, for Jean and her Stu . . . for Stella and her fella, Bob . . . for Dolores and Robert, Raskob!

CHERUBS, STRUM UPON YOUR HARPS, for the Champions and Olsens, the Shireys and Tharps! And cherubs, with your rosebud smiles, smile over the Spiegls, the Simons and Miles!

If she's pining about, try dining out

Candle light and quiet and dinner a deux . . . for the Gillivans, Gilmores, O'Briens, Schnuggs, too! (A dinner menu, A LA CARTE, is sure to win the lady's heart!)

AND DANCING TO OLD GERSHWIN TUNES, for the Bardens, Hightowers, and George and Gene with their Junes . . . Send down a very special moon, for the Atkinsons, Axelsons and Robinsons (Boone!) . . . for the Gregorys, Grahs, for the Mirovs, McGahs, some STAR DUST, strictly entre nous, for the Johnsons, and Browns, C and V Barkelew!

Play some Cole Porter medleys FOR . . . the Miles Sutliffes, John and Mary Dorr!

Bring back memories of a special "shindig" . . . to the Smithses and Joneses, Garey and her Bill, Indig!

SING A BALLAD for sentimental souls, for the Kroffs, Kauffmans, Kilburns, the Porters and Polls, and play Rodgers & Hart's FUNNY VALENTINE, for the McLarens, Mulvaneys, John and Nancy Van Dyne . . . And play it just once MORE again, please . . . for the Williams and Lees and the Ainsworths, Dupuis!

L'amour, toujours l'amour

Let's have some favorite Jerome Kern lyrics, for the Watkins and Moores, the Davises, Dirickx . . . Aim well your arrows, at the Websters and Darrows, and pierce hard the Hennings, the Naismiths and Dennings!

A BOX OF BLUM'S BEST with yummyish fillings, for the Kereseys, Sheaffs, and the Sharps and the Schillings! Send a ten-pound box right over, to the Vicars, and Nickersons to Cay from Gene (Snover). Another gilt-edge box, a WOW, to Esther from her Barney (Gow) and additional boxes to the Blocks, Hansens and Coxes!

TOUJOURS L'AMOUR for the Wrights and the Whites . . . for the Millers, Maloneys, the Colwells, Courtrights . . . the Fishers, Ferrones, the Burtons, Bargones. And that's just about the end of our verse (before we go from bad to worse!).

BUT TO ALL OF SUBURBIA'S Misters and Missuses — A heartwarming day full of OOOOOOOO'S and of XXXXXXXXes!

Army Completes Flood Survey; Report Due Soon

A field survey of the Walnut Creek wathershed and its flood problems has been completed by the Sacramento District, Army Corps of Engineers, and the complete report will be ready by this summer for submission to the United States Congress.

William Doyle, assistant to the planning branch, engineer's division of the Sacramento District, told The Sun yesterday that all that remains is the compilation of cost estimates which will total "in the millions," comparison of costs and benefits, and recommendations.

The recommendations whether or not the Corps of Engineers shoul dproceed with a Federal-sponsored flood program in Zone 3-B, including Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Concord and Alamo, will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Army, and then to the Congress.

WHETHER THE district engineers recommend yes or no, the Congress will get the report and will review the facts, Doyle said.

It is likely that a hearing will be held within the zone when the report is ready. This is to get the opinion of residents.

Doyle said, "There is a wide variation in the time between submitting the report to Congress and Congressional action.

"I would say that there is at least a two year minimum wait after submission of the report and start of construction.

THERE HAVE BEEN cases like the one where a project was submitted in 1940, wasn't authorized until 1944 and didn't get into construction until 1956. But the two year minimum is the normal thing to expect.

"If the projects are approved, there are certain things which the localities are expected to do, such as providing for land and rights of way where necessary, also for construction of utility changes, as where bridges, levies or irrigation must be altered to fit the new pattern.

"They must also hold the federal government free of any damages resulting from the construction. And an added contribution would be forthcoming where there are "land enhancements," as where the buildup of soil provides a new site for a factory or other facility.

"I think that in this case, the local contribution might be substantial.

"A HEARING is the customary procedure, but whether it is held depends on the type of improvements, and if there has already been an adequate expression of local sentiment.

"The problem is to get the plans and specifications prepared, get the authorization and get the appropriations. Once this is done, the work itself may take only two or three years. It is possible that the appropriations in this case would not come in dribbles, but all at once, since this is not as big as the Sacramento River or other like jobs."

Bridge Job at Pine Lane 'On Schedule' -- Engineer

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Work has been progressing "on schedule" at the 500-foot-long bridge at Lafayette Undercrossing (Pine Lane), Cliff Birnie, senior highway engineer in charge of administration and public relations at the District IV offices of the State Division of Highways in San Francisco, said yesterday.

Birnie said that some commuters may have the impression that work has been at a standstill on this portion of the Lafayette By-Pass because "in the early morning and late afternoon or early evening the activity is not going on."

"Such an impression is erroneous," he continued.

THIS BRIDGE is the major uncompleted section of the 2.6-mile, $3 million-plus by-pass north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard. General contractor is Gordon H. Ball of Danville.

"There are still a few months of work ahead for this bridge," Birnie stated.

"Making allowance for 'normal' bad weather, the earliest estimate of the opening of the Lafayette By-Pass is still approximately next June 1."

THAT OPENING-DATE estimate was made a few weeks ago by J. P. Sinclair as acting assistant state highway engineer.

Last Monday Sinclair resumed his duties as district engineer, upon the return of B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer, who had been absent a few months because of a heart condition.

The Lafayette Undercrossing bridge is sometimes referred to by commuters as "the El Nido bridge."

"THE PROGRESS on the Lafayette Undercrossing bridge," Birnie reported, "has been this:

"The east-bound structure is nearing completion. Within the next couple of weeks, if the weather holds up, we will be able to complete that. This Friday we will be pouring the deck if the weather is good.

"Regarding the west-bound structure, advancement probably isn't apparent to many commuters. However, considerable work is being done on the 'falsework,' or framing.

"All materials are on hand for the job at the Lafayette Undercrossing bridge."

ALREADY COMPLETED are the bridges at Dolores Drive, Happy Valley Road, Oak Hill Road and Brown Avenue.

At the field office of Resident Engineer Don Young at 1032 Oak Hill Road, it was explained that all the bridges except the one at Dolores Drive will have four lanes initially.

The Dolores Drive bridge will have six lanes, but only four will be used for traffic until such time as two more lanes are added to the rest of the by-pass.

Lafayette By-Pass, a major link in the developing Diablo Freeway, will extend from Sunnybrook Drive to the Pleasant Hill Road Interchange. The entire by-pass is being constructed with eventual six-lane width in mind.

STILL SNOW?

No more snow since a week ago, but every morning the frost is so heavy it is a reasonable facsimily of same. Days are wonderful, but oh! these bitter, cold nights.

I sit here writing with a guilty conscience, for I should be studying like mad for my Civil Service examination, which comes up tomorrow. This reminds me of my school days—a long time ago.

Ah, the good old days, when all one worries about is an examination.

Time goes go by, and a recent Saturday night was a good indication of it. The Tom Carrolls were truly surprised by a number (about 48) of friends and relatives who gave them a party in honor of their Silver (25th) Anniversary.

Held at the Carroll's home at 57 Heather Lane, Orinda, and sponsored by Faye Jones and Margie Howard, a very exciting evening was made complete with a buffet supper, all food furnished by the two ladies and relatives.

A number of pictures were taken of the guests and gifts. According to Tom and Gena Carroll, they were really surprised and very happy over the occassion.

NEWCOMER

A new little resident has moved into the John R. Friedrich home on Rheem Boulevard. Mother Peggy traveled to Parks Air Force Base Hospital January 23 to receive Diane Merle Friedrich, who arrived weighing 7 pounds 5½ ounces.

At home is an older sister, Teresa, who is in Moraga School. What a lot of fun she should have in a few months with a live doll to help with. Congratulations.

A BELATED HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Sandra and John Sullivan, who live on Camino Pablo. Sandra and John celebrated their 8th and 9th birthdays on January 27 with a joint birthday party, when a number of their friends gathered at their home to help with the festivities.

MARCHING FUN

The March of Dimes parties are moving along in the Rheem area. On January 31 Mrs. Marie Fakeury entertained a group of friends with a dessert tea.

Monday afternoon Elsie Cummings of Rheem Boulevard was hostess at her home for a large group for played bridge and canasta.

Bon Voyage to Commander Frank Adams who set sail (via plane) for Hawaii last Friday night. He will be attached to the USS Hornet. Commander Adams expects to be gone for several months, but in This Man's Navy, who knows?

HORSE TALK

The Moraga Junior Horseman's Club is now making plans, according to reports from President Caroline Thune, for next month's regular meeting. It will include a talent show, staged by members for their parents.

To bring you up to date on the progress of Caroline Thune, it pleases me to report that she is back in school and getting back into the swing of normal living. After the latest examination by her doctor, it seems she is mending so rapidly that she will be able to get along without her brace within this month.

Very interested in Mrs. Margaret Wood's weekend trip to Dubuque, Iowa. It seems she and her sister, Mrs. K. W. Teel of Monterey, flew back on January 30 and returned here Sunday night to attend the ordination of their brother, Robert Wanzek, into the priesthood of the Catholic Church.

He will be assigned to the diocese of Fargo, N. D., in June.

As he is the youngest of 10 children, one can imagine the excitement and fun the family gathering of around 35 had at the reunion dinner held at the Town House in Dubuque.

Knights Trim Dons in Overtime, 50-45

Las Lomas Bees Also Victorious; Complete Sweep

There were Knights all over the Las Lomas High gym floor Tuesday afternoon.

Too many for the Dons of Acalanes High, at any rate. The Las Lomas basketballers routed the Don Bees, 53-38, and followed with a thrilling 50-45 overtime victory in the varsity contest.

In the opener, the Knight Bees took a 16-11 first quarter lead. They managed to retain the five point lead through the hotly-contested second and third periods, but a fourth quarter spurt proved fatal to the little Dons.

EACH CLUB scored 10 points per stanza in the two middle periods, but in the fourth the Knights tallied 17 to 7 for the Dons, and that was the story.

The Knights made 21 out of 29 free throws count, for a good 72 per cent, while the Lafayette squad hit for a mediocre 55 per cent with 10 for 18.

In scoring, forward Morgan Jellett had 15 for the Dons, while guard Nick McGrath paced the winners with 17, followed by teammate guard Bob Gomez' 14.

A ROUGH and tumble thriller ensued as the varsity squads took the court. Four Knights left the game on personal fouls, and it took an overtime period for the Las Lomas crew to pull victory out of the fire.

The Knights exploited the home court and crowd and raced to a 13-8 first quarter lead, only to have the Dons close the margin to 20-19 by the end of the half.

Acalanes was paced by Dick Markstein's three field goals in the second quarter come-back.

OPENING the second half the Dons came hard and fast and sped to a 6-point lead midway in the third. By the end of the period, they were still out in front, 35-31.

The Knights received a blow when guard Joe Sibley, an important man under the board and sharp-shooter during the first half, went out on fouls. The Las Lomas attack was slowed.

A Don victory seemed insured until the closing minutes of play, when fouls took their toll.

WITH JUST a minute and 48 seconds left on the clock and Acalanes out in front 41-37, Don Dave Bojarsky fouled Knight Frank Cox. Cox missed his try, but got a reprieve when Don John Phair stepped into the key a bit too soon.

Cox sank two and brought the score to 41-39.

With less than a minute remaining the Knights' forward Pete Ostrom fell into the hero's role as he drove in and hit on a jump shot to knot the count, 41 all.

BUT THE game-saver fouled out seconds later and Don Mac Hancock toed the foul line. He missed his chance, however, and when a couple of Knight shots missed their mark, the game ended in a 41-41 tie.

As the overtime period began center Art Dalbey gave the Knights a lead they never relinquished as he hit from 20 feet out. Hancock went back to the foul line seconds later and dropped through one of two attempts to bring the count to 43-42.

But then Dalbey hit again and the Knights' lead jumped to three points. Phair kept the Dons' hopes alive as he hit on a jump shot to close the gap to 45-44.

WITH 34 seconds remaining, Las Lomas forward Doug Potter potted one and it was 47-44.

Dalbey pretty well sealed things up as he hit on a foul shot. Freeman's point from the foul line brought the count to 48-45, but that was all for the Dons.

Reserve guard Roger Pliter put salt in the wound by hitting from the far corner for the Knights, and the buzzer sounded with the score 50-45 for Las Lomas.

In the scoring parade Don forward Markstein led the field with 14.

Dalbey and Sibley each had 12 for the Knights, while teammate Cox followed with 11.

Freeman and Phair boosted the Dons' cause with 10 points each.

MIRAMONTE MATADORS are a recognized power on area prep basketball courts. Left to right are Dixon Farmer, Klint Danna, Bob Hudson, Doug Federighi, Dave Puddy, Randy Young, John Coffey, Bill Houston, Tim Crawford, Steve Cornwell, Rob Antronisen, Floyd Blaney and Rich Myer. Because the Orinda high school has only freshman and sophomore classes, its cagers are playing an independent schedule this year, against junior varsity teams.—Sun photo by Mattson

Matadors Beat Ram JV Team

The Miramonte Matadors added another basketball win to their growing list when they powdered the Pleasant Hill Rams at the Pleasant Hill gym on Monday.

A tough defense plus lots of pass interception early in the game gave the Matadors another win over the Ram JV's, 36-29.

The Matadors were ahead 19-6 for what appeared to be a comfortable lead at the half, but things changed, but quick, in the third canto when the Rams came back from a halftime "pep talk" to take a 23-19 lead.

The Matadors woke up in time to hit the hoop for enough points to take a 29-25 lead at the end of the period—and then it stayed nip and tuck the rest of the way.

The game's top scorer was Guard Dixon farmer, who collected 14 points (3 fg—8 ft) for the winners.

WHAT A SYSTEM

The human body's circulatory system is the world's most remarkable transportation system.

It is an estimated 60,000 to 100,000 miles long, longer than any U.S. railroad, and blood circulates through the system at five quarts per minute—7200 quarts every 24 hours.

Rams Scare Devils But Lose, 40-37

The Pleasant Hill Rams came close to upsetting the dope bucket last Friday night when they played the Diablo Devils at Concord.

Diablo, currently leading the league along with Pittsburg, entered the game as a heavy favorite, but was lucky to get out with a 40-37 win.

The scorebook showed the Rams ahead in field goals, 14-12, but trailing from the foul line, 16-9.

TROUBLE at the foul line and a low-scoring third quarter really accounted for the Rams' loss.

Both teams were tight in the opening quarter as Diablo led 9-8.

The one-point margin was maintained at the mid-point, as each club hit for 11 points in the second quarter.

BOTH CLUBS must have really cooled off at the half, as Diablo hit for only 8 points in the third period, but even that doubled Pleasant Hill's output of 4.

In the final period the Rams outscored Diablo 14-12, but time ran out, to give the Devils the win.

The Rams' All-County guard, Bob Ritchie, hit for scoring honors with 22 points (10 fg — 2 ft), while Diablo's Forward Dave Stafford had 16 (5 fg — 6 ft).

In the Bee game the Rams went to town to romp to a nifty 55-49

Gaels Trounce Loyola Quintet By 66-42 Score

Playing before an overflow crowd of 1400, the St. Mary's College Gaels rolled to a convincing 66-42 win over Loyola Unversity of Los Angeles last Friday night.

The game, played at the St. Mary's gym in Moraga, found the crowd seeing a better game than the final score would indicate, as the Loyola Lions gave a good account of themselves in the first half, only to go cold at the hoop in the final period of play while St. Mary's hit with a vengeance and won going away.

A partisan crowd made the most of it.

THE WIN put the Gaels in a first place tie with Santa Clara in the California Basketball Association pennant race.

The victory was doubly sweet in that the Gaels' only loss in league play had been to the same Loyola quintet in an earlier meeting down South, which the Southlanders won 64-59.

St. Mary's held a scant 26-25 lead at the half, but four successive field goals gave them a good lead, and they were never to be headed.

LaRoy Doss, St. Mary's outstanding sophomore guard, was the game's top scorer with 19 points, featured by some deadly shooting from outside the foul circle, and his floor play, especially on the defensive boards, brought enthusiastic comment.

ODELL JOHNSON was another Gael who played a fine all-around game while collecting 13 points.

Teammate Dick Sigaty was another standout. He garnered 12 points for the winning cause.

Golf Play Won By Mrs. Small

Mrs. Joseph Small made the Orinda Country Club golf links rounds in 76 and came home several strokes up on her competitors in Class A Ladies Medal Play last Friday.

Trailing the victor were Mrs. R. F. Hopkins with 82 and Mrs. Perry Thomas with an 83.

Class B winner was Mrs. H. S. Worthington, who played the course in 79. She was followed by Mrs. Russell Wilson and Mrs. Thomas Carlson.

After a tight race in Class C competition, Mrs. L. Hagstrom won out with a 78. But right at her heels were Mrs. George Thomas and Mrs. William Kilgo.

Area Preps All Face Hot Hoop Rivalry Tonight

Basketball play in the Diablo Valley Athletic League East Section continues in the second round tonight.

Las Lomas plays Diablo at Concord. The Bee game is a crucial for the Knights, as a win would keep them hot in a red-hot pennant race.

The Devils are favorites but by no means certain winners in the varsity go.

The Knights have depth, and with a good night could topple Diablo for the number one rating in the standings.

PEASANT HILL, like Las Lomas, can give plenty of trouble when right. They face Antioch at Antioch tonight.

The Panthers rate an edge, but not too much. The Bee game should be nip and tuck—both teams are in the running.

The Acalanes Dons play Pacifica at Acalanes and could well win a double-header.

The Don varsity won in a garrison finish at Pacifica in their first meeting. Home court won't hurt the Dons, and, smarting from an overtime loss to Las Lomas, they could be tough to handle.

All games are set for the Bees' opening at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

MIRAMONTE plays the Pittsburg JV's at home tonight in another 7:30 game.

Next Monday Miramonte will host Antioch in a 3:30 p.m. game.

Pittsburg and Miramonte rate as a toss-up, while the Matadors rate the odds over Antioch.

Next Tuesday is a holiday, as far as school is concerned, so games will be played on Monday.

LAS LOMAS and Pleasant Hill will play at Pleasant Hill. It will be the small gym, so the edge goes to the Rams. The Bee game should be nip and tuck. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

The Acalanes Dons host Pittsburg, and the Don varsity will have a big job on its hands.

Pittsburg is tied with Diablo in league standings and has the league's high scorers. The Dons had troubles in their first meeting, and it looks like more of the same.

In the Bees, Acalanes defeated Pitt in a tight ball game in their initial meeting. Close—with an edge to Coach Charles Eaton's Bees.

Church Casaba Action Starts

The O.W.L.C.A.L., which is short for the Orinda, Walnut Creek, Lafayette Church Athletic League, swung into operation, as far as basketball was concerned, when it opened play last Saturday night on the hardwood of the Miramonte gym.

Six teams are in the circut, and, on the basis of a good house which witnessed the opening games, interest will be high, complete with organized rooting sections.

In the opener, Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian copped the nod in easy fashion as it coasted to a 42-8 win over Walnut Creek First Baptist. Ron Nelson paced the winners as he bagged 16 points.

In the second game, Santa Maria of Orinda led 18-11 over Lafayette Methodist at the half and was never in trouble as it waltzed to a 47-22 win. Scoring honors went to Dennis Spittler, who notched 24 points for the winners.

THE NIGHTCAP proved to be the evening's best game, as far as competition went, when St. Stephen's of Orinda and St. Perpetua's of Lafayette had at it.

St. Perpetua's took a 14-4 first-quarter lead, only to trail 16-15 at the midway point. In the second half it was all St. Stephen's as they outscored their opponents 11-9 in the third quarter and 17-10 in the final canto, to take a 44-34

Those Stirrings are First Signs of Spring Sports

By ERWIN MATTSON

The beginning of the week found a bit of spring in the air, as far as sports are concerned.

Track, baseball, swimming, tennis and golf enthusiasts began limbering up on a modified basis in preparation for the seasons which lie ahead.

ACTUALLY, the spring sports season is the most active of all. There are so many activities that there is a place for most everyone who has an interest, plus a bit of ability.

In fact, if a boy has desire and the willingness to work at the job, the chances are he will make the grade.

Today most youngsters have so many diversified interests that they fail to reach the peak in any. Most could qualify, even with mediocre native ability, if they'd only concentrate.

I SEE where Las Lomas is putting more stress on track — in fact, on all spring sports. In the past track has been pretty much of a side issue with the Knights, but it looks like they'll be going full steam this spring, with a new coach at the helm.

The Las Lomas gym is being expanded. This means a stage, plus additional floor space.

A gym-stage combination is not best, due to conflicting demands, but it is probably a necessity in view of the lack of adequate funds for sparate units.

SPEAKING of gyms, the Pleasant Hill basketball team appears hardly likely to get into its new edifice before the season runs out.

Seems as though the floor failed to pass inspection and has to be redone.

This means delay. One consolation is it's certain to be nice when it's finally finished.

THE NEW SPLIT in the Diablo Valley Athletic League, scheduled to take place in 1958, is providing problems in game scheduling.

During the first two seasons the local circuit will have but five teams, as Tice Valley High (yet to be built) will start with frosh only and won't be ready for varsity play until 1960.

That probably means that league play will start late in order to fill in with necessary practice games. Scheduling will have to be done soon if games are to be played, as most schools are booked a couple of years in advance.

The second class of the First Annual Baseball Clinic, sponsored by The Sun and Sports and Games, will be held at Acalanes High School Field this Sunday.

THE WALNUT Creek version was held at Las Lomas two weeks ago and proved very successful, despite little cooperation from the weatherman, who provided a definitely cool day.

The instructors are tops in the field, and it's a good chance for players and managers to get the real "low down."

It's open to eighth graders and high school students, as well as adult managers.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Chandler

Funeral services were held on Wednesday for Mrs. Edna Chandler, 31, of 151 Agnes Way, Pleasant Hill, who died in a Walnut Creek hospital on Saturday.

Bishop Ira Somers of the Pleasant Hill Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints Church officiated at the services held in the Chapel at Overlook Drive and Harvard Way, Walnut Creek.

A native of Price, Utah, Mrs. Chandler is survived by her husband, Allen S. Chandler; two sons, Stephen Ray, 8, and Jermoe F. 4; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erick R. Erickson of Price; six brothers, Harry Russell, Lavon, Carl, Ronald, Erick, Jr and Clark Erickson; five sisters, Mrs. Leona Rice, Mrs. Louise Starich, Mrs. Isabell Wing, Mrs. Ruth Jones, and Mrs. Dora Curtis.

Members of the Mutual Society took turns at a 24 hour vigil since Wednesday of last week, at the side of Mrs. Chandler.

At Christmas time a fund totaling $200 was collected to help make the family's holiday a little brighter. Merchants in the area presented the family with food and toys. Mrs. Chandler had been ill for the past four years undergoing endless surgery to stave off cancer.

At the services held in the chapel, 14 women sang a group of songs. The choral group, of which the deceased had been a member, included "Eternal Life" by Dungan, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Gates. As a last request of Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Evelyn Tueller and Mrs. Joann Chalmers sang the duet, "O, My Father."

Other members of the choral group were Mesdames Wanda Hilton, June Dietrich, Mona McClug, Maurine Colbridge, Edna Somers, Marilynn Smith, Kay Raynor, Beth Pierce, Sally Gleason, Maurine Perona, Geneve Scott, with Mrs. Loraine Dangerfield, accompanist.

Interment services were held yesterday morning at Memory Gardens in Concord. Arrangements were made by Robinson Brothers Mortuary, Oakland.

Incorporation of Ygnacio Valley Is Discussed

Possible incorporation of Ygnacio Valley was discussed at a meeting of the Ygnacio Valley Improvement Association this week.

This is the area just east of Walnut Creek, which has been eyed by city officials for annexation.

It was proposed that the Coro Foundation of Berkeley be engaged to make a study, but members decided to leave the choice of a firm to the board of directors.

New officers of the group are President Joe Shockey, Vice President Hugo Stevenson, Treasurer Stewart Loe and Secretary Phil Bancroft Jr.

The County Planning Commission recently favored plans for location of a "research facility" of Dow Chemical Company near Oak Grove Road in Ygnacio Valley.

If for any reason you lose the gas cap on your car, be sure it is replaced with the correct type cap, cautions the California State Automobile Association. A vented gasoline tank cap is necessary to insure proper "breathing."

Dons Pull 49-48 Upset Over Antioch

The Acalanes High cagers pulled one out of the hat last Friday night to eke out a 49-48 win over the highly favored Antioch Panthers on the Antioch court.

Coach Jean Ridley's varsity men trailed throughout the first three quarters to bear out the prognosticators' predictions. After all, this Antioch club had whipped mighty Pittsburg and was in strong contention for league laurels.

But came the final quarter, and the Dons came to life. They scored 15 points in that period to grab a precarious lead. Fight back as they might, the Panthers just couldn't catch up.

Antioch outscored the Dons on field goals, 20-17, but in the free throw department Acalanes hit for 15 points against the Panthers' 8. That spelled the difference.

The Dons trailed 16-12 at the quarter, 26-23 at the half and 40-34 at the end of the third period.

But they overtook the Panthers when it counted most. With a slim lead in the fourth quarter, they staved off a late Panther drive.

Four Dons hit in double scoring figures, but game honors went to Antioch's high-scoring forward Rally Rounsville, who came through a 19 points in a brilliant game.

For Acalanes John Phair had 13, Dave Bojarsky notched 12, Rich Markstein 10 and Bill Freeman 10.

In the Bee game the Little Dons pulled one out of the fire as they nailed the Panthers 29-27 in an overtime game.

Miramonte Five Defeats Wolves To 44-30 Tune

The Miramonte Matadors rose to the occasion January 31 to take the measure of the San Ramon Wolves' junior varsity team with a final tally of 44-30.

The game was played at Miramonte and it found the invaders using their height and aggressive play to good advantage in the early stages of the game.

In the opening quarter San Ramon held a 10-4 lead at one time, with the Matadors closing the gap to a 10-8 margin at the end of the quarter.

Something happened in the second quarter to set the Orinda club "on fire," and they hit the mesh for 16 points while doling out but 5 points to San Ramon.

The Matadors held on to a safe lead the rest of the way and went on to put another notch in their victory belt.

Center John Coffey had 16 points for the winners, while teammates Bob Hudson and Floyd Blaney were next in the scoring standing with 10 points each.

Anna Russell to Star in Benefit Children's Opera

Ticket sales are beginning today throughout Northern California for a March 31 gala performance of Hansel and Gretel to benefit The Salvation Army, Mrs William B. Freeman of Lafayette local chairman for the event, has announced.

The opera this year features Anna Russell, famed English comedienne, as the Witch. She will fly about the stage of San Francisco's Opera House with the aid of complex machinery brought out from New York.

Mail orders for tickets should be sent to Cosmopolitan Opera Company, 165 Post Street, San Francisco. Checks or money orders should read "The Salvation Army, Pinehurst Auxiliary."

Prices are: Balcony, $2; balcony circle, $3; dress circle, $3; orchestra and grand tier, $5.

NOTHING HALF-HEARTED about Dave Bojarsky's athletic endeavors at Acalanes High School! His predicament might be said to be almost symbolic of the approaching spring prep sports season and the current basketball season. It's all authentic, too, since Dave (in addition to being a Don halfback in football) is a forward in Acalanes basketball, runs on the track team, catches in baseball and plays tennis for his own recreation.—Sun photo by Mattson

Down the Slope

Nearly Everyone Turned Out, But It Was Cold!

By VI WHITE

The weekend of January 26 and 27 was a cold one throughout California and ski areas reported temperatures as low as 5 and 10 degrees below zero, giving excellent powder snow conditions but chilly lift riding weather.

The Las Lomas group, the Sitz Marks Ski Club, left after sehool Jan. 25 for Yosemite. They had a wonderful time skiing at Badger Pass Saturday and Sunday.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mr. Dull. and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gador, who kept track of the eager students and gave them helpful hints to make their skiing more fun.

Among those presentwere club president Tom Leonard, Sandy Guidi, Irene Pieper, Jane Berry, Garry Barnett, Jane Backus, Dee Walker, Ann Chamberlain, Charlie White, Ruth Watson, Barbara Fulghum, Don Irving, Eileen Mac Laren, Donna Obert, Bev Pelosi, Stephanie Van Ogtrop, Gail Shick and Skip Roderick.

The new Yosemite Lodge was overflowing with teenagers from all over California who enjoyed the after dinner dance Saturday night. The trips to and from the park were long, as bus trouble kept them off schedule, but the club is planning another trip soon.

THAT SAME COLD weekend a group of Boy Scouts from Troop 233 of Lafayette piled into station wagons and spent two days at Longgarn Lodge and skied at Dodge Ridge. Fathers who helped Scout Master Al Sabatte with the boys were Art Bertolero, Hal Dornsife, Idar Gagstad, Paul Childs, Dr. Sam Smith, Jim Marsola and "Micky" Macpherson.

Scouts Jimmie Marsola, Warren Smith, Dave Dornsife, Charlie Anderson, Gary Sabatte, Doug White, Hillard Ebding and Don Brownlee had loads of fun and are planning another trip later this month to Donner Summit.

Dodge Ridge was host to about 150 Juniors Racers who ran downhill courses Saturday and slalom runs Sunday for points. Skiing was difficult because of flat lighting due to the snow storm Saturday but Sunday the sun was out and a clear blue sky greeted those hoping for sun tans.

Young Robert Gester of Orinda came in 9 in his class in the downhill, made a good first run in the slalom but had a bad fall during the second and was unable to finish. He was skiing under the Sugar Bowl colors.

Top juniors will be selected for the Far West Ski Association team to compete in the Nationals in Reno next month, and some will even be representing the United States at the 1960 Olympics as Squaw Valley.

THE SKIING pharmacist Julian Potashnick from Kaiser Hospital was also skiing at Dodge last weekend with friends Marge and Al Gossard and their daughter Shiela of Danville, Dr. and Mrs. Dan Ritter, and Dr. and Mrs. Jim Townsen.

Dr. Townsen's mother was also out on the slopes enjoying the wonderful snow. Bette and Bill Evans and their boys Brett and Randy spent two days there recently.

Events on the schedule for this weekend are: Tomorrow Edelweiss on Highway 50 will stage the Divisional Junior Giant Slalom Championships sponsored by the Red Hornets of Edelweiss. Lutz Aynedter ski school director will set the course.

THE ANNUAL BAY Area Ski Federation Winter Carnival is this weekend with Ski Patrol activities demonstration scheduled for Saturday at Donner Ski Ranch, the presentation of skits by the member clubs at the Veterans Building in Truckee Saturday night, and the giant slalom competition at Donner Ski Ranch Sunday.

About 12 clubs from the bay area are participating in this event which highlights the season.

Knights Routed By Vaunted Pitt Cagers, 73-46

The Las Lomas Knights were able to pull at least one surprise as they hosted the vaunted Pittsburg Pirates last Friday night.

Though thoroughly whipped by the classy Pirates 73-46 in the varsity game, the Knights came through with an exciting 28-26 upset in the Bee contest.

Though the end results weren't so good for the Knights, the Pirates were shaken in the varsity game as they came up against a tight full-court press that stifled the high-powered Pitt offense in the early stages.

After eight minutes of play, the Knights trailed by a scant 14-12 margin. It seemed that the defense was working.

But then Pitt exploded, slowed the Knights to a walk and left the court with a 32-18 lead at halftime.

The walk turned into a sprint during the third stanza, however, as the Knights outscored their opponents 20-16. But came the fourth quarter and Pitt was once again in charge.

The Pirates poured 25 points through the hoop while Las Lomas garnered only 8. It was strictly "no contest" when the Pirates started pouring it on.

Church Helps Indonesian Family Make Home Here

The recent arrival of Mr. and Mrs. George Deighton and their baby son, Glen, in Lafayette was the culmination of much planning by members of the Lafayette Methodist Church to be able to welcome this displaced family into the community.

NOW AT HOME in the Marlaw Arms on Hough Street under church sponsorship, the young family is finally finding roots and contentment after years of hardship and turmoil.

George, 26, and Monique, 21, started life in Indonesia — he in Djakharta and she in Cheingrai, Thailand.

George's father was an engineer. His family spent 18 years in Indonesia, where first the war and then government changes interrupted his education.

Monique's life was a series of disruptions, too. Her father died when she was two years old and her mother supported the family for a number of years until marrying a Hollander.

The family was eventually repatriated to Holland, after the Indonesian independence.

THE YOUNG COUPLE met in Holland and were married there. It was then that they realized the obstacles that faced them in a foreign country that had been depredated by war, floods and economic upheavals.

Housing was a severe problem, and food scarce on such meagre earnings as were available to George.

They decided to register with the World Council of Churches, through the United Nations, to come to the United States on emergency quota and make a new start.

THE LAFAYETTE Methodist Church was selected from the group of churches making application to sponsor and assist displaced families.

On January 20 a potluck dinner was held to introduce the Deightons to the congregation.

Members of the church who worked on the committee to expedite plans were:

Lowell Sandmanr., chairman, Mrs. Evelyn Janzen, sub committee on arrangements, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall, housing; Mrs. Terrance Erwin, furniture; and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Birch, publicity.

Textbook Protest Issued by PTA

Assemblyman Donald Doyle has received a letter from the Executive Board of the Burton Parent-Teachers Association protesting textbook cost and quality and calling for a new investigation of the textbook adoption system.

The PTA board told Doyle, who is chairman of Assembly Subcommittee on textbooks, that "the present plan of adopting and providing textbooks in California provides textbooks of less than first quality at an excessive cost."

The letter asked that a "competent, objective, fact-finding investigation of . . . book adoption system be speedily inaugurated and expeditiously concluded."

It requested that "following the investigation, corrective legisla-

Cauffman Leads Oak Springs

William Cauffman is heading the Oak Springs Home Association, following his recent election as president.

Cauffman appointed Fred Shimmel as secretary-treasurer, Betty Mann, social chairman, and Cathy Woods, clubhouse and pool chairman.

Serving on the organization's new board of directors are James Denning, Doug Adie and Glenn Taylor.

The board will soon appoint a replacement for Vice-president Volney Plumb, who recently resigned.

A potluck supper will be held early in March honoring Dorothy Adie, new representative to the Orinda Association, and Ted Sawyer, outgoing representative.

RAINY WEATHER DANGEROUS

A wet, rainy night is the most dangerous time there is for pedestrians. If you're walking, look out for vehicles and don't assume that the driver can see you. If you're driving, make sure your windshield wipers are working properly and keep a sharp look.

Troop 128

The "True Christmas Spirit," written and directed by member Susan Dunshee, was presented at the recent program of Girl Scout Troop 128.

Costumes, makeup and scenery for the play were handled by other members of the troop: Joyce Bailey, Diane Kirsten, Carol Pedersen and Rosemary Loughman.

Girls participating in the play were Sandra Jones, Suanne Deandrot, Susan Schilling, Jill Rankin, Lynn Loveland, Pan Braly, Joanne Larson, Beverly Boyd, Virginia Brunk and Rosemary Loughman.

At the close of the play Susan Dunshee was presented a corsage in appreciation of her work.

Troop 341

The girls of Brownie Troop 341 of Orinda, under the leadership of Mrs. Martin Jacobs, have been working on conservation.

A trip was taken January 23 to the local tree farm maintained by the Orinda Explorer Scouts, Post 300. Dr. Ralph Hall showed the girls around the farm and gave each girl a tree to plant at the Twin Canyon campsite.

A craft meeting was held recently at Mrs. Jacobs' home at 7 Hartford Road. The girls displayed what they had leaned and done for conservation.

Troop members are Beth Lincoln, Betty Lohse, Beverly Taylor Candy Jacobs, Kris Hecathorn, Chris Patton, Gay Searcy, Jill McCaffery, Karen Granberg, Laurie Wierenga, Louise Miller, Margie Titmus, Mary Ann Ruedrich, Nancy Miller, Patty Lynn Moore, Sally Lucas and Wendy Thompson.

Puppet Show

Sandra Jones of Orinda Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 128, who is earning her Puppeteer badge, presented a musical puppet show, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs,' to Orinda Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 156 at the Scout Hut at Orinda Park Pool recently.

Linda Mitchell, Diane Kersten and Joyce Bailey of Troop 128 assisted Sandra in presenting the show.

The paper mache puppets, the scenery and the puppet stage were made by Sandra.

Sandra will give another performance of the show at the Scout Court of Awards which is held when the girls of the troop are presented with the badges they have earned.

Orinda Needs Cooperation of All of Us

During the past few years Orinda has gone through several battles which have split the community sharply. Feelings have at times run so strongly that friendships of long standing have been severly strained if not broken.

Regardless of the merits or demerits of any of these controversies, one fact stands out: No one is always right; no one is always wrong; everything is not either all black or all white.

Once again The Sun recommends that we should all work together for the welfare of our entire community.

On a number of occasions in the past, some people did not weigh the issues at stake, but made up their minds on the basis of personalities.

That is, they would be for or against something not because it was a good idea or a bad idea, but because so-and-so was supporting the idea or was opposed to the idea.

Certainly, we must weigh and intelligently judge each issue as it arises. Everyone can't "win" all the time. Somebody has to give in, in each dispute.

Objective discussion should be the basis for planning the future of the community. In fact, it might be said that the future happiness and effectiveness of Orinda and its citizens depend in large measure upon how objective our discussions are.

Personalities need not—and should not—enter into the picture.

The objective approach to communty problems and the objective discussion of them are, of course, related to alertness and understanding of community issues.

This attitude also implies tolerance—the realization that varied, even opposing points of view can be discussed calmly and in a friendly spirit.

After all, we're all proud of Orinda and have the common desire to improve our community.

Recent events augur well for cooperation on behalf of Orinda.

The Orinda Association, the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and other groups, under intelligent and able leadership, are making very definite steps toward our common goal.

For the sake of our community—as well as for our own feeling of well-being and of harmony with our neighbors—we should all join in these efforts.

Needless to say, this doesn't mean being insipid "yes-men" to every idea someone else expresses.

But it does mean that in discussion of our varied ideas and opinions—and in decisions on solutions and courses of action—we weigh facts and consider problems objectively, rather than "judge" from an emotional or personality-influenced springboard.

Orinda is our community—and how we act with one another will largely determine its future.

What They Say...

Wanted: Scout Leaders

While the Boy Scouts of America commemorate this 47th anniversary this week during Boy Scout Week, local scout leaders are reflecting that adult leadership isn't keeping step with the booming movement here.

The youth program (including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and Cub Scouts) is bigger and better than ever. There is a definite need for more adults to guide the youngsters in their activities.

How can local people be induced to accept such leadership positions? This is what your Roving Reporter asked some local folks this week. They answered as follows:

MRS. ROBERT W. CLAIRE, 3427 St. Mary's Road, Lafayette: "There is certainly room for more scout leaders. I think the way to get these leaders is to contact scouts' parents and try to persuade them to take leadership posts. This is the only solution I can think of."

MRS. DEL T. KAY, 22 Tarry Lane, Orinda: "I work with Cub Scouts, and find things are well enough there, but there aren't enough leaders among the Boy Scouts. The most sensible plan would be to have scoutmasters contact parents at home. We have one boy in the Cubs and one in the Boy Scouts."

MRS. E. F. CARDIN JR., 1232 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette: "I've been a Cub Scout Den Mother for about six weeks, and the scouting movement seems fine as far as I know. There are classes offered to scout leaders in this area, and the response to them has been good."

MRS. JOHN D. MAATTA, 26 Irving Lane, Orinda: "I'm not too familiar with scouting, since my child is too young to be a scout. But it seems to me the ones who have children in the movement should be the ones to be persuaded to become leaders."

MRS. FRED DIREKAL, 45 Varido Drive, Walnut Creek: "I think that every parent who has a child in any of the scout movements should participate as part of the dues for the boy in scouting."

MELVIN CRANINTS, 11 Dody Drive, Pleasant Hill: "You can't force people to do anything they don't want to do. If they are shown there is a need they will help, if asked first."

MRS. HENRY L. FORNSBY, 3576 North Main Street, Walnut Creek: "I think those parents who have children in scouting are responsible for the group leadership. They should be shown their responsibilties, if they don't already know they have one."

H. K. LENITLY, 98 Onah Way, Pleasant Hill: "I'm in the scout movement myself and no one really asked me to enter. I felt I should and I did."

Don't Quote Me, but...

Is This a New Category Of Do-It-Yourself?...

By DOROTHY PATTERSON

WELL, NOW I'VE READ EVERYTHING! In the want ads the other day I noticed that one particular company is offering something like $40 for cars to wreck.

Frankly, this sounds like dirty pool to me because I think they are just trying to cut into a perfectly good racket that has managed to sustain itself for quite some time now without any payoffs.

Sure, the price is higher for those in the do-it-yourself set, but I don't believe that car-wrecking is a thing that should be overdone.

Why, pretty soon, wrecked cars will be a drug on the market and will cut into the pharmacy game. Paid car-wrecking could lead to a national catastrophe.

Who'll wreck the cars?

Frankly, I wonder who the joker is that they plan to have wreck these cars. Perhaps some unhappily married person who can't meet his tax installment will volunteer. But, who collects his salary?

In our town there was a building that had a sign reading, "Collision Rebuilding."

Why people want to make a living out of rebuilding collisions, I shall never know.

At this rate, the highways will soon be covered with tragically wrinkled wreckage that distracts from the joys of traveling, and a journey will have as much glamor as a suitcase full of old darned socks.

Words present a challenge

Want ads have always fascinated me, though. Like the one for a "Used man's bicycle." It did not specify just how badly the man had been used, buit it certainly was a challenge to go see.

Another ad I enjoyed was something like "Bertha and Gertha Dressmaking." This one did not specify just what else Bertha and Gertha were doing: but probably contact with the girls could prove to the interested that there are still those among us who rip what they sew.

Another little jolly stated, "Maternity clothes for sale. Going out of business." Oh, I tell you . . .

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

This is the reason the Hungarians still need clothing. Quoting from an eye-witness, a student from Texas, when the Hungarian decides to try to escape this is the way it is done:

"They follow their normal pace of life for a few days so as not to arouse any suspicion and then suddenly, without saying good-by even to their closest friends or neighbors and without taking a single thing with them — and this applies even to any extra clothing (they don't dare wear even an extra jacket, so as not to attract attention on the street) — they go out for a stroll which ends up at the railway station.

THERE THEY get on the train and ride out of Budapest as far as the trains can take them.

No ticket is needed on the train. Everyone just gets on the trains until there is no more standing or holding-on room, and then the trains pull out.

Then since there is not a bush or shrub to hide behind while making the border absolutely no concealment, there is just one thing to do — run, run, run."

ACCORDING to this reporter "Vienna has drained herself, once, twice and yet again of all possible clothing, down to sets of underclothing that are so patched that none of the original material remains (which shows how poorly clothed most of the Austrians are themselves.")

Local clothing may be given to representatives of the Red Cross or depots of the American Friends Service Committee where all clothing is ultimately sent at the present time.

The AFSC has shipped 310 tons since the beginning of the Hungarian crisis. More is being sent as rapidly as it can be processed. There is no time limit as yet. Every piece is needed. Money may be sent to the American Friends Service Committee, 1830 Sutter Street, San Francisco.

Sincerely,
GEORGIA BUSCH

FIRE BONDS

Dear Editor:

The article in the February 1 Sun relative to a bond issue for the Lafayette Fire Department is a most amazing and unexpected bit of news. I was under the impression that our Fire Department had more money than they knew what to do with. After all, they are spending $31,700 for a sheriff's office, on which their net return will be less than bank interest.

The rent for a five year period will amount to $2040 per year, or a little over 6 per cent interest on the investment. After making allowances of at least 4 per cent for insurance, depreciation, repair and maintenance the fire department will have left a net income of roughly 2 per cent at best.

And now, we are asked to approve a bond issue on which the interest rate will be 4½ per cent or more.

The sheriff's office has an option to renew this lease after the expiration of the present five year lease, but we have no assurance that they will want to renew it, and if they don't, we then have a useless monument to the ineptitude and lack of business acumen of our fire commissioners.

At least one of our commissioners has an answer for that possibility, and that is that the building could be used as a city hall whenever Lafayette incorporates.

That's like buying a buggy in the hope that you'll someday have a horse to pull it; besides, this building wouldn't even be large enough to make a proper size cloakroom for a city hall.

Our firemen have experienced lack of parking space for their cars and the erection of this sheriff's building eliminates another 2000 square feet of parking space. Then too, the sheriff's office has requested space for at least five cars. Just where are the firemen supposed to park their cars?

While I recognize the need for additional protection for Lafayette, I am not willing to put $100,000 or more in the hands of the commissioners. They might decide to build a home for tired "saucer" pilots, the same as they are now building a sheriff's office instead of the two needed fire houses.

Frankly, I shall vote "no" on this bond proposal, and shall encourage my friends to do likewise. My "no" vote is a vote of No Confidence in our fire commissioners and is not, in any manner or form, a criticism of our firemen.

Here Are Gems of Wisdom From File Folder No. 2

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Last week I pulled out my file folder labeled "Column" and it was so full that I started folder No. 2. I started discussing news clips and memos but I didn't get past the ones on civil defense. Today I'll try again.

Calaveras County officials and people have battled the East Bay Municipal Utility District for years over water and the use of Pardee Dam as a recreational site. I note with great interest a recent statement by State Senator Stephen Teale of Calaveras County that there is a marked change of attitude on the part of the residents of his area as a result of EBMUD's recent agreement to open the Pardee Dam for recreation.

Why not the San Pablo Dam area in Orinda, the beautiful, small park below the Lafayette reservoir and other EBMUD sites? Something to think about.

Hats off to Senator Miller

Hats off to our state senator, George Miller Jr., for introducing legislation to prohibit secret or closed meetings on the state governmental level. Assemblyman Ralph Brown has introduced comprehensive legislation in the lower house. As you know, closed meetings on the county and local level are outlawed. Sun staffers try to keep close check to see that this law is not ignored.

Assemblyman Don Doyle has us confused. Several weeks ago The Sun carried a top story quoting him that further hearings on text books would be held. The Examiner carried a Sacramento story the other day quoting Doyle — no more hearings would be held since the committee had sufficient testimony and evidence to arrive at a conclusion. We are calling Don to find out the details, and the story should be in the front section. Don told us emphatically that he would submit some text book legislation. We haven't heard of any, have you?

Prediction: The voters of the county will be asked to pass another 10 or 20 million dollar bond issue for county roads.

Bay Area helicopter service?

A few weeks ago this column humorously suggested that commuters should buy helicopters. I am interested in the new campaign to establish regular helicopter service throughout the Bay Area — including Central Contra Costa County.

An Associated Press dispatch from Sacramento: "Trucks would be banned from freeways on weekends by a bill introduced by Assemblyman Charles Wilson of Los Angeles."

Comment: I would suggest the opposite for our commuter-filled highways — ban trucks Monday through Friday! (Memo to trucking associations: I am only kidding!)

The hot potato is back

More and more counties and cities are passing draw poker and pinball machine ordinances. Our past boards of supervisors have been amazingly stubborn in refusing to act. No one seems to know the reason why.

The present Board of Supervisors has the hot potato right back in its laps. It will be interesting to see what develops.

Walnut Creek has outlawed draw poker parlors but is one of only two cities in the county that has no pin ball machine law.

Alameda County supervisors have appointed a governmental committee to make recommendations regulating billboards in the unincorporated areas. Our supervisors might do the same.

Well, I did go through a lot of notes and stuff, but I still have a batch. So see you next week.

College Site Dedicated; 550 View Ceremony

East Contra Costa Junior College's new Student Activities Building was dedicated to truth, equality and freedom, January 31 by O. J. Wohlgemuth, president of the District governing board.

The $250,000 structure was formally accepted by Richard McInerney of Concord, president of the Student Body who said that "students of the past, present and the future will live up to the expectations of the public which has provided a center for self-government, publications, co-curricular activities, and a cafeteria."

A dinner audience of 550 paying guests attended the dedication. It was arranged by the East Contra Costa Junior College Patrons Association, assisted by the college faculty and students.

THE OCCASION also marked formal recognition of the $385,000 Library-Classroom Building which has been in use for more than two years.

The principal address was given by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Roy E. Simpson. He disclosed that his department is sponsoring legislation which would provide state subsidy for capital outlay to newly-formed junior college districts or for expanding existing districts which meet acceptable criteria as strong regional colleges.

"This assistance," Simpson said, "will relieve the burden of local costs incurred by the establishment of badly needed higher education facilities.

"It will in many instances reduce the tendency to expand the state college program into a very extensive one similar to that which is now maintained by some 65 junior colleges."

SIMPSON SAID the proposed legislation would be on a matching basis, leaving the full management and control of the financing of current expenses in the hands of the local districts as it is now.

He sees no conflict, he said, between the function of junior colleges, colleges, and the University since each "serves a particular function which is clearly defined and well accepted."

Referring to the Student Activities Building, Simpson called it "a great achievement."

"This dedication," he said, "causes me to reflect with pride on the community effort which is behind this great echievement, and I know that you must have an even greater pride in your own accomplishment."

LAWRENCE A. Gerlach, M.D., of Concord, president of the Patrons Association outlined his organization's function and scope by defining it as "a cross section of the community which is interested in promoting an institution that makes college level education available beyond the high school to the people in all walks of life."

Association membership is open to all, Dr. Gerlach said, at a cost of one dollar a year.

"The only qualification," he added, "is interest in the college, whether as student, alumnus, parent, faculty member, neighbor, or interested taxpayer."

New officers, to be elected in April, will be chosen from a slate to be submitted by a nominating committee which Dr. Gerlach named.

The committee will include Mrs. Helen Forry of Martinez; Fred Karlsrud and Erving Metzgar Jr., both of Walnut Creek; Richard McInerney of Concord, and College Director Karl O. Drexel.

Leaves for Italy, Spain

Michael Szaja, assistant professor of architecture at the University of Califorina, with his family left last week for New York.

From there they will sail to Italy on February 13. In Italy they will hire a car and drive to Spain. They will spend six months in Spain and in Italy. He is on his sabbatical leave from the university.

They will return in September. Children are Vicki, 13, and Toni, 11. Their home is at 1440 Maria Lane, Walnut Creek.

Junior Assembly Is Tonight at Las Lomas High

Eighth grade boys and girls of the Walnut Creek and Parkmead Schools will meet at the Las Lomas High School on this evening for their fifth Junior Assembly of the school year.

Co-hosts for this dance are the students from Room 21 of the Walnut Creek School and students from 12 of the Parkmead School.

Two students from each host room and one from the Student Body Council of each school have assisted the Room Represntatives in planning the evening's events.

The host room students will be under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. James Dotsen, P.T.A. Room Representatives of the Walnut Creek School, and Mesdames G. S. Chessum and M. D. Peevey, Room Representatives of the Parkmead School.

Bob Maxey, Pete Corona and Leigh Metteer of the Walnut Creek Recreation Department Staff will assist the room representatives and their committee of parents.

Montecito PTA To Hear Talk, Present Award

Homer Fey, a former resident of Sun Valley, will be guest speaker at Monday's Montecito PTA meeting. He will present one of his "Chalk Talks," in which he illustrates with chalk as he speaks to his audience.

Mrs. H. N. Couden, Founder's Day chairman, will speak briefly on the history of the PTA. She will introduce former presidents of Montecito PTA and recipients of the honorary life membership award.

Mrs. Ralph Anderson, chairman of this year's Life Membership Committee, will present the award.

Library in Las Lomas Has Grown To 4219 Volumes

Although Las Lomas High School has been in operation only six years, its library has made tremendous growth, say administrators.

The first drive for books was made by the Las Lomas Amigos by means of a fiesta in May, 1952.

The library contained only 430 volumes at the end of the first year.

For three years the library operated without the services of a librarian. In 1955, Mrs. Margaret Stroberger became the first professional librarian for the school.

By September last year the total books were 3219, an increase of about 2900. During the current year an additional 100 books have brought this to 4219 volumes.

Mrs. Stroberger, the librarian, said, "According to ideal standards, a school library should have seven books per pupil. By the end of this year we hope that our library will contain from 4500 to 5000 volumes.

"If parents and residents of the community are willing to donate books to us, we could use old college textbooks in literature, foreign language, history, pure sciences, and other areas, as well as fiction and classics suitable for a high school library."

Gift Shop to Have Skirts And Blouses

A large selection of women's skirts and blouses will be for sale this weekend at the Therapy Thrift Shop. Clothes for the toddlers are also available.

The Shop located at 1547 East Street, Walnut Creek, is open every Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mesdames Paul Nave', Franklyn Pennock, Arch Campbell, George Hansen, George Olmsted, Claude McPhee and Paul Lawrence will staff the Shop today.

Mesdames Richard Strong, Robert DeShane and Ted Prentiss will be in charge of sales, tomorrow.

Group Plans Luncheon Event

"Improving Our Wardrobe" will be discussed by the Day Group of the Walnut Creek Home Extension next Friday at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. E. C. Shokel will be hostess at dessert luncheon in her home at 3600 Melody Drive.

Assisting will be Mesdames Lena Leloy, Daniel Macfarlane, William Menegus and Antonia Turrin.

The project leaders Mesdames E. J. Martin, Henry J. Keith and L. D. Tycer received their training from Mrs. Mary Williams, county home advisor.

Hit Community Thanks Pleasant Hill for Efforts

By ESTELLE GIRANDE

Scores of letters are arriving here from the violence-stricken, harassed Koionia Farms—the 15-year-old interdenominational, interracial, cooperative community—whose address is, ironically enough, Americus, Georgia.

The letters read in part, "It has been a truly fine experience to realize how many friends we have and the extent to which they will go to help us to survive. Our friends in Pleasant Hill are certainly showing a great and wonderful spirit.

THE "WONDERFUL SPIRIT" stems mainly from the Hillcrest Congregational Church members who have been sending not only letters of encouragement but contributions.

Pastor of the Gregory Lane church, Reverend A. Ray Petty observed that residents in the community can follow the example of his congregation by 1) sending letters of encouragement; 2) request their names be placed on the Koinonia Farm mailing list; 3) send contributions even nominal ones add up); 4) order any of the mail order items sold at the etc. Farm; 5) duplicate the example of integration of races in our own community.

JORDAN EXPLAINED that "Koinonia" is a Greek New Testament word for "fellowship" or "community," and means generally "Christian Brotherhood" to the Farm family. There members of the white and Negro races are an example of cooperative living in the spirit of Christian brotherhood.

"However, with the enforcement of inegration taking place, and tensions rising throughout the south, of course, Koinonia would be a natural target," Petty pointed out. "Banks are refusing loans; surplus eggs no longer have a market; butane supplies have been discontinued; insurance firms will not grant policies, and so on."

Koikonia was opened in 1942 by Dr. Jordan with 440 acres of rundown land. Today it has grown to 1104 productive acres. They specialize in divers products including has, turkeys, goats, cattle, hogs, cotton, peanuts, corn, etc.

"COME PLAY THE QUEEN!" is the theme of the luncheon-card party-fashion show to be staged by the League of Jewish Women next Wednesday at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center in Lafayette. While Bobbie Collen (standing, left), co-chairman of the event, and Rose Spellman, in charge of table favors, hold a sign proclaiming the theme in French, Sari-Lois Mattal (seated, left), ways and means chairman, and Betty Freeman, co-chairman, indulge in a bit of play with some of the decor. "SUDDENLY ITS SPRING," say three members of the Immaculata Guild of Saint Mary's Church, Walnut Creek. Their fashion show by that title will be held Thursday noon at the Diablo Country Club. Left to right are Mesdames Robert McBlaine, William Sheeran and Frank Kromka.

Immaculata Guild's Show Is Thursday

Mrs. Rainold Pimper, president of the Immaculata Guild of Saint Mary's Church, Walnut Creek, will be hostess at the Guild's annual fashion show and luncheon "Suddenly It's Spring" at Diablo Country Club on Thursday noon.

This year the proceeds will go toward the School Fund for Saint Mary's Parish.

Heralding the arrival of Valentine's Day and the coming of spring, hosts of cupids and hearts and strains of organ music will set the stage for this promenade of spring styles.

The fashions to be shown by the Clothes Horse with furs by Harels of Walnut Creek will be sportswear and frocks with emphasis on casual wear. Commentary will be by Muriel Stephens.

Mrs. Anthony Lupoi and her committee announced that the featured door prize will be a complete spring outfit. According to Mrs. Edward McGinnis, Special Events Chairman, there will be many surprises in store.

Junior Alliance Seek Valentines

Castlewood Country Club near Pleasanton will be the setting next Wednesday for the anual Mayfair luncheon and fashion show of the Junior Alliance of Children's Foster Care Services.

Chairman of the event this year is Mrs. H. B. Gardner, of 45 Meadow View Road, Orinda. She is being asisted by Mrs. John Mortarotti, a near neighbor in Orinda.

Mrs. Howard W. Crandal, of Sleepy Hollow, Orinda, is training and rehearsing the models, who are from the membership ranks of Junior Alliance and Children's Foster Care Services.

Among the models are the Mesdames Glenn Heltne, Richard Johnson and Gerald R. Kruse of Lafayette, Alan McDowell of Orinda, and Albert R. Rubey Jr. of Diablo.

Mrs. Robert Mortensen reports that Valentines will be the theme of the extensive decorations. She is assisted by a committee which includes Mrs. Vernon Louis of Orinda, Mrs. Eldridge Ostrander of Moraga and Mrs. Rolland Carrothers of Concord.

Hostesses will seat the guests for the 12:30 luncheon under the direction of Mrs. Robert Haaf of Orinda.

Mrs. Kenneth Mirov of Orinda hints that the prizes promise to be exciting.

Funds made from the sale of tickets for this fashion show will go to the Lincoln Home for emotionally disturbed children in Oakland.

Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Francis Allen Watson Jr., at CL 4-3077.

ORINDA TANAGERS, with "Money Trees" like the one being displayed by these women, are ready for their cocktail party which will be co-hostessed simultaneously at five homes from 4 to 7 p.m. tomorrow, for the benefit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Left to right, the hostesses whose homes will be the settings for the event are Mesdames Alexander B. Morris, Robert Bettencourt, Frank Walker, James Seaman and John Den Dulk. —Sun photo by Mattson

Flicker Unit Preparing for Luncheon, Fashion Show

Castlewood Country Club at Pleasanton will again be the setting for the anual spring luncheon and fashion show to be given March 2, by the Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Mrs. E. William Palmer, general chairman, has appointed Mrs. Harry H. Hagee, Jr. decorations committee chairman. She will use the traditional theme, "With You In View."

Under the direction of Mrs. John B. Anderson, 15 models will be selected from the 11 auxiliary units of the Therapy Center.

They will display spring fashions from the new Goldman's store in Walnut Creek.

Renowned commentator, Paul Speegle, will describe the ensembles for the small set, the young matron and the more mature figure.

Unique table favors and prizes are being planned by Mrs. Kenneth Ehlers, chairman of this committee.

Other committee chairmen appointed are Mrs. Sal Caruso, telephone; Mrs. H. G. Brandenburg, tickets; Mrs. Leo J. Kieny, publicity; and Mrs. R. W. Olsen, reservations.

The anual style extravagenza, which attracts more than 500 guests each year, benefits the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Reservations may be made by calling YEllowstone 5-1622.

LAFAYETTE LARKS will stage their fifth annual Mardi Gras party at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek February 16—and tickets are going fast. "Let Your Husband's Job Go to Your Head" is the theme for event, to be carried out in novel hat decorations depicting husbands' occupations. Trying out some of this decor are, left to right, Mrs. Ralph Ligon, Larks president; Mrs. A. N. Warburton Jr., chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Kendall Caldwell, in charge of decorations. Gordon Holmes of 2815 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul G. Winquist of 27 Glorietta Court, Orinda. Dr. Holmes is associate chief of surgery at Herrick and Dr. Winquist is associate chief of pathology. The affair was held January 26 at the Hotel Claremont L'Horizon Room.

Diana Kercheval Weds In Ceremony at Carmel

At a ceremony conducted by the Rev. K. Fillmore Gray in Carmel's Church of the Wayfarer January 26, Diana Sue Kercheval became the bride of George Lorin Coad.

Only the immediate families of the couple were present for the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the La Playa Hotel in the little city by the sea.

THE BRIDE'S sole attendant was her Chi Omega sorority sister, Miss Nola Jonas of Corona Del Mar, while Rowland S. Coad of Walnut Creek, George's father, was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, James E. Kercheval of Arcadia, Diana's mother is Mrs. Elvan R. Babylon of Camino Don Miguel, Orinda.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin by Cahill, the pearl embroidered cowl collar on the boat neckline in front, forming a deep V in back, and the full skirt fell into a V shaped chapel train.

HER FINGERTIP length illusion veil was secured by a finely pleated, pearl encrusted satin Juliet cap, and cascading over her ivory satin prayer book was a shower of Lilies of the Valley.

Miss Jonas wore a turquoise chiffon sheath with floating panels and matching headpiece, and carried a spray of yellow rosebuds.

Diana attended the University of Colorado at Boulder before transferring to the University of California. She is a member of Chi Omega Sorority.

GEORGE, the son of Mrs. Maertens Coad of Lafayette, is a sophomore at the University of California, where he is studying aeronautical engineering and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The newlyweds honeymooned in Carmel and Lake Tahoe and are now living in an apartment in Berkeley while George completes his studies at the university.

Orinda Mothers Club Prepares 'Aladdin Ball'

Invitations are out this week for the Orinda Mothers Club's informal dance, "The Aladdin Ball," to be held at Diablo Country Club on March 9, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Tickets at $3 a couple may be obtained by calling Ticket Chairman Mrs. R. L. Kocher, CL 4-3235; Assistant Chairman Mrs. Abe Doty, CL 4-3381; Mothers Club President Mrs. Charles Erickson, DR 6-5517; General Chairman Mrs. Harold Caldwell, CL 4-2677, or any of the room mothers.

Other commitee chairmen are Mrs. Richard Copenhagen, refreshments; Mrs. Dick Dildine, entertainment; Mrs. James Reed and Mrs. William Scantena, decorations; Mrs. Robert Thaman, publicity, and Mrs. Miles Hudson, raffle tickets.

Couple Looks to April 13 Wedding

Jeanne Marie Baitx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baitx, 1086 Larch Avenue, Moraga, has announced her engagement to Walter James Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Williams, 66 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda.

The announcement was made to the couple's families during the holiday season.

Both Jeanne and Walter are graduates of Acalanes High School. The bride-to-be is currently studying Dental Assistance at East Contra Costa Junior College, while her fiance is a student at San Jose State College.

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda will be the site of an April 13 wedding.

Gamma Phi Beta Valentine Party

Making the final arrangements for the Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae Valentine Party, a bridge lucheon to be held at 12:30 p.m. next Thursday, are co-chairmen Mrs. Richard F. Peters and Mrs. Karl Palmaer.

The gala affair will take place at the chapter house on the Berkeley campus, 2732 Channing Way. Sponsors are the alumnae of the Contra Costa area.

Mrs. Charles Hunt of Orinda is the newly-installed president of the local alumnae chapter, now in its ninth year of social activity and philanthropic work in this area.

Junior Robins Hold Dance

The Junior Robin Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center presented a sport dance last Friday at Williams School after the Mt. Diablo-Pleasant Hill game.

The public and basketball fans attended. Proceeds went to the Therapy Center in Concord.

Williams School is located across the street from Mt. Diablo High School on East Street.

Candy Heart Is Raggedy Ann 'Ball'

A "Candy Heart Ball" will be held tomorrow at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek under the direction of chairman Mrs. A. C. Phelps, and Mrs. H. B. Williams of the Raggedy Ann Chapter of the Children's Home Society.

Decorations will be in keeping with the story of Raggedy Ann and also the month of Valintines.

Ways and means chairman, Mrs. Robert Hart of Alamo is in charge of arrangements. Chapter members Mrs. Winston Woodman, Mrs. Stephen Richards, and Mrs. William Sawyer will assist her.

Tickets may be purchased by calling Mrs. Carl Hansen of Danville at Vernon 7-6657 or Mrs. Robert Hart of Alamo at Vernon 7-4996.

All proceeds will go to the Children's Home Society, which is the only privately supported adoption agency serving all of California.

Stanford Mothers Will Hold Drama Tea

The annual benefit Drama Tea of the Stanford Mothers of the East Bay will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Twentieth Century Club in Berkeley. Highlighting the program will be the appearance of Carol Brumm in a dramatized reading of a current Broadway sucess.

As in the past, proceeds will send an outstanding young man from Alameda or Contra Costa County to Stanford. Selection of the candidate is made by the university's scholarship committee.

Mrs. Ralph J. Young is serving as general chairman. Publicity chairman is Mrs. Jack Pedder of Lafayette.

Mills Dancers Give Recital

The Mills College Dance Group gave a recital at the Acalanes High School auditorium Wednesday night.

Eleanor Lauer, choreographer, directed the event.

Tanagers Will Present 'Monday Tree' at Party

Guests of the Tanager unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will tip their hats to St. Valentine early this year when they gather during the cocktail hour tomorrow evening between 4 and 7 p.m., according to President Mrs. Stanley Majka.

Locale for the event, which is under the direction of General Chairman Mrs. Cecil Cantrill, will be multiple, with the Robert Bettencourts, John DenDulks, Alexander Morris', James Seamans and Frank Walkers receiving members' friends in their Orinda homes.

The affair, which is being held for the benefit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, will afford opportunity for the Tanagers to present their version of "The Money Tree" — a study in cardia selection.

Mrs. Harold Staff, chairman of Ways and Means, anticipates "hearty" guest acceptance of this bit of title plagiarism.

AGD Alumnae To Meet Monday

Diablo Valley Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta will hold their monthly meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Cayting, 28 Scenic Drive, Orinda.

The group will play bridge after a business meeting and straw ballot for new officers.

Garden Club Plans Anniversary

The Mount Diablo Mens Garden Club of Contra Costa County will celebrate its twenty-second anniversary February 25 with a birthday party and ladies night at Pioneer Village in Lafayette.

A new movie entitled "Holland, Wonderland of Bulbs," will be shown by John Paul Edwards. Special entertainment will also be provided.

The club has grown from a handful of men interested in getting more out of their gardens to one of the largest men's club in the country with some 200 members scattered throughout Contra Costa and Alameda Counties. Club members now include specialist in such flowers as camellias, dahlias, chrysanthemums, and African violets.

Most of the well-known nurserymen and landscape architects of the County are active in the club.

Although there are many with special interests, the bulk of the membership is made up of backyard gardeners whose interests are varied and wide. Membership is open to any resident of the county.

At the January meeting, new officers were elected.

These include Dr. Fred Heitman of Lafayette, a camellia grower who has taken many prizes throughout the State.

Two vice-Presidents were chosen, Mr. S. E. McElroy, manager of the Clayton Valley Nursery in Concord, and Mr. Robery M. Graves, landscape architect of Walnut Creek.

Edward N. Munns was re-elected secretary and Talbert Taylor was made treasurer, both are from Concord.

Softball Game on Sunday Will Aid Therapy Center

The 1957 baseball season will unofficially bloom into being Sunday on the parking lot at Clark's Market in Rheem Center.

A bit premature you say? Not for the employees of Clark's and the U-Save Market of Martinez, who will haul out the old mitts and caps and clash in a 1:30 p.m. softball encounter on the parking lot.

And the diamond season isn't opening a bit too early for patients and the staff of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

All proceeds from cold drinks and other refreshments sold during the game will be contributed to the center.

Owners Jack Clark of Clark's and Elmer Hanon of the U-Save invite all local baseball fans to come out and watch the horsehide lid lifted.

Dianne Foster, Charles Kops To Wed Soon

Wedding bells are beginning to chime for Dianne Foster of Walnut Creek and Army Pvt. Charles G. deBruyn Kops of Orinda, who are loking forward to their February 17 wedding date.

The couple will exchange nuptial vows at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Miss Foster, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Foster, 1511 Hillgarde Avenue, Walnut Creek, is a graduate of Acalanes High School and is now employed in Concord.

She announced her engagement to Charles at a December 30 cocktail party at her parents' home.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. de Bruyn Kops, 150 La Espiral, Orinda. He is home on leave from Milan, Italy, for the ceremony.

He is also a graduate of Acalanes and attended the University of California before entering the service. There he majored in engineering and was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Following the wedding, Dianne expects to follow her husband back to Italy. The couple will return here in February of next year, when Charles expects to resume his studies at the university.

Hart to Join Tax Committee

President Bruce S. Howard of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association announced today that Dr. Charles J. Hart of 1471 E. Newell Street, Walnut Creek, has been appointed to the Health and Welfare Committee of the tax group.

The new Committee is now at at full strength for the task of examining the problems of the health and welfare functions of the county as related to economy and efficiency.

Dr. Hart has long been active in the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Association and with other public and civic groups dealing with welfare and medical problems.

President Howard noted that the Committee has received letters from several of the agencies involved in health and welfare in the county welcoming the organization of the civic group.

The Lafayette Branch Library circulated the fifth largest number of books among the 31 branches and stations of the Contra Costa County Library system during 1956.

Some 82,227 books were borrowed for home reading by 4913 readers.

IN ADDITION, Mrs. Stella Freedman, Lafayette librarian, and her staff answered 3767 reference questions, making the local library the fourth largest information center in the county library system.

Although there is shelving capacity for only 5000 books in the crowded building at 852 Moraga Roads, county library records show that 11,075 books are currently checked out to the Lafayette library.

DURING 1956, 2867 books, including 787 specially requested titles were added; 1336 were withdrawn for repair and redistribution.

This rate of turnover is made possible by rotation of the total county library book collection of some 200,000 volumes among the branch libraries, assuring readers at each library of new titles by book deliveries twice a week from headquarters in Martinez.

ANY BOOK available through county library resources, which included borrowing privileges from the California State Library in Sacramento, may be requested by any individual through the Lafayette Branch.

Lafayette library hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday; 10 a.m. to noon Saturday.

Sweetheart Show Models Named by Kappa Tau Unit

Mrs. Earl Kuchta, chairman of the annual Luncheon-Fashion Show given by Kappa Tau, recently anounced the names of the various committee heads and models.

The event is called "Sweethearts on Parade" and will be tomorrow, at 12:30 p.m. at Mt. Diablo Country Club. Fashions are by Bonnie Warren of Gregory Village and Danville and proceeds will benefit Muscular Dystrophy.

Reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Lester Habben, YE 4-0076. Mrs. Gus Niemann will commentate and Mrs. Kenneth Cook is the pianist.

Mrs. Jack Rogers is in charge of hosteses; Mrs. Robert Melsheimer, models; Mrs. Philip Churchill, decorations; Mrs. Lester Aboudara, door prizes; Mrs. Harold Parks, favors; and Mrs. Elmer Kaprielian, publicity.

Models were selected from the nine chapters in the area and are as follows: from Kappa Tau, Mesdames Robert Melsheimer, James Tallman, William Mairs, Joe Hall, Lester Habben, Robert Richardson and Earl Kuchta.

From Mu Chi, Concord, Hazel Thomas; Sigma Eta, Danville, Frances Wilmore; Omicron Mu, Antioch, Jewel McCormick; Xi Gamma Mu, Concord, Claire Kenerly; Xi Delta Tau, Walnut Creek, Virginia Scholes; Tau Omicron, Lafayette, Ann Forrester; Tau Nu, Walnut Creek, Jan Webster, and Iota Theta, Concord, Jean Austin.

The next regular meeting of the chapter was scheduled for Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Melsheimer, Pleasant View Drive, Pleasant Hill, with Mrs. Jack Rogers acting as co-hostess, and Mrs. Richard Tegen in charge of the program. Her subject was "Speech."

Dr. Castellanos Talks to Meet Of 100 Women

Dr. Jane Castellanos, psychology and family relations instructor at Contra Costa Junior College, was the guest speaker at the Lafayette Suburban Junior Woman's Club recent meeting honoring its senior club.

Approximately 100 women heard Dr. Castellanos give her views on how to solve a problem after first establishing if there is a problem.

It must be decided for whom a situation presents a problem, she said. She pointed out that being tidy does not necessarily seem a problem to the child but might be to the parent, whereby children have major crisis problems that seem minor to adults.

Learning to accept one's own limitations and teaching one's child this were also discussed by Dr. Castellanos.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Edward C. Allen, president, and she introduced Mrs. R. Don Young, president of the Lafayette Suburban Woman's Club. Each junior board member in turn introduced the senior board member holding the same office.

A pantomime skit and the lyrics made light humor of a young club woman's activities.

Before adjourning the meeting for informal discussion, the models for the Juniors' "American Heritage" Fashion Show February 16 were presented to the group by Mrs. Lee J. Hicks.

BPW Dance to Benefit Scholars

Worthy students will reap the benefits of the buffet dinner-dance of the Lafayette Business and Professional Women, to be held next Friday from 8 p.m. to midnight at the Veloz and Yolanda Dance Studio in Walnut Creek.

Proceeds from the dance will go to the Acalanes Scholarship Fund.

The public is invited to enjoy dancing, food and entertainment at the affair. Reservations may be made by calling AT 3-3431 or YE 4-5700.

The dance studio is located at Locust and Cypress Streets, Walnut Creek.

Zetas to Hold Valentine Party

Mt. Diablo Alumnae of Delta Zeta will hold a potluck supper for members and their husbands Saturday night at 7:30.

The event will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelleway, 425 Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek.

A valentine theme will be used in the decorations and games. Those wishing to attend should contact Mrs. Ed Firth

Gamma Kappas Stage PH Meet

Gamma Kappa Chapter, Walnut Creek, met at the home of Mrs. Theodore Poehler, Pleasant Hill, January 17.

Plans are near completion for a rummage sale to be held in Berkeley Wednesday.

Mrs. Victor Ortegren, chapter president, reports that donations of rummage will be appreciated and that pick up can be arranged by calling her at MU 5-9507.

Proceeds from the sale will benefit Lynn School for the Retarded in Danville.

Gamma Kappas recently performed pledge ceremonies for Mrs. Robert Olson in Danville. Mrs. Charles L. Smith and Mrs. Donald L. Burnham, vice president, presided.

Also welcomed at that time were three transfer members, Mrs. Andrew Snider, San Diego, Mrs. Robert Olson, Hayward, Mrs. John Adams, Richmond.

Two others, Mrs. James Caldwell, of Taft, and Mrs. James Reegor of Texas, were welcomed at the Christmas party in December at the home of Mrs. Andrew Catherall, Orinda.

Tuesday the get-to-gether was a Valentine party planned by the hostess, Mrs. Eldon Quinby, Orinda. Secret Sister gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Bruce Boswell, educational chairman, has arranged what promises to be an interesting evening February 21.

Auxiliary to Accept Charter

The Women's Auxiliary No. 139 of the International Typographical Union will install officers and will be presented with a charter on February 17 at 3 p.m. in the VFW Hall, Concord.

M. F. Cardwell, president of the Martinez Typographical Union, will formally present the charter.

Officers to be installed as Mesdames Oravon Winter, president; Fred Nicolosi, vice president; Edward Kosak, secretary; Raymond Nauson, treasurer; Raymond Cox, chaplain; Eugene Davis, guide; Ray Hilgendorf, publicity chairman.

Orioles to Hold Membership Tea

The Orinda Oriole Chapter of The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will entertain with its annual membership tea Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m.

The tea, to be held at the home of Mrs. E. L. Bargones, 206 Camino Sobrante, will honor inactive and associate members.

Hostesses will be Mesdames Bargones, Dirickx, Case and Quinn. Pouring tea will be Mrs. John Dorr, president of The Orioles, and past presidents Mrs. Lance Barden, Mrs. C. W. Smith and Mrs. T. M. Harrer.

Strange Callers Weren't Just Shy

Archie Ginochio happened to be driving past his home at Bear Creek and Happy Valley Roads on January 31 when he noticed a strange car parked in the yard.

Stopping to investigate, he was startled by the sight of two men running from the house and jumping into the car. Before Ginochio could make a move, the unwelcome visitors had sped out of the yard and out of sight.

A search within the house revealed that the callers did not flee because they were shy.

Ginochio reported to the Walnut Creek sheriff's substation that they made off with a World War I pistol, a man's wristwatch, a box of silver plated cocktail forks and a pair of driving glasses.

Housewarming Is Surprise to Hosts

Ray and Clel Dittmeyer opened the door of their new home at 14 Via Baja recently, to see and hear 14 couples grouped outside with horns and bells and whistles to wish them a Happy New Year in their new domicile.

After the Dittmeyers overcame the surprise of having 28 people bursting in on them, they took the group on a tour of their home. Dancing, music and refreshments were engaged in for the remainder of the evening.

Pastor Hidy to be Guest at 'Mission'

Rev. Albert S. Hidy Jr., pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Orinda, will be guest missioner at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Portland, Oregon, for its Preaching Mision beginning February 24.

Pastor Hidy will leave February 22 for the pre-Mission briefing.

The purpose of these missions is to train laymen for evangelism and to acquaint them with the total program of the Church.

The theme of Pastor Hidy's sermons will be, "The Christian in Action."

Names Officers

The Work and Recreation Section of the Central Contra Costa County Community Welfare Council held a meeting at the Health Department in Martinez 915 Green Street, Wednesday.

The business included election of officers, a report of last Tuesday's board meeting, and report and discussion of the County Survey Committe headed by Mr. Charles Gable of Walnut Creek.

CHARTER MEMBERS of the recently organized Northern California Chapter of the Second Marine Division Association are Robert E. Wickman (left) of 1230 El Curtola Boulevard, Walnut Creek, and G. H. "Pete" Alferitz Jr. of 1165 First Street, Lafayette. They are shown nailing up the crest of the Second Marine Division at the Marines Memorial Club in San Francisco.

Girls Keep Vigil After Burglar Flees with $850

Sixteen-year-old Judy Lowe heard the back door slam as she walked in the front door of her home, at 3694 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, with her 16-year old friend Tonie Scott late Sunday night.

One look at the interior of the home informed the girls that the retreating visitor had ben a burgler. He left the house completely ransacked and with some $850 worth of jewelry, cameras and other items.

After calling the sheriff's substation in Walnut Creek, the teenagers sat armed with fire pokers against the return of the culprit until Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Lowe, returned from a movie several minutes later.

A check by Lowe, who is president of M.G.M. Construction Company of Concord, revealed that among the missing are a movie camera and projector two additional cameras; a $300 diamond ring; assorted jewelry and costume jewelry; insurance policies, bonds, a suitcase and other items.

The thief apparently entered by an open door, Inspector Norman Wilson disclosed.

So thoroughly was the house ransacked that even pictures on the walls were disturbed — apparently in search of a hidden safe — and a bed showed signs of someone have stood on it to check a lighting fixture for hidden items.

Deputies said the family had been gone overnight, having left the house Saturday night.

Art Center Will Be Open On Saturdays

New hours during which the Valley Art Center will be open to the public were announced at a board meeting of that organization Tuesday evening at the Center's headquarters, 3420 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

In her report to the board, Mrs. Stanley Kwiat, Market Director, stated that starting March 2 the Center will be open 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays. Those are also the Center's hours Tuesdays through Fridays.

Mrs. Kwiat also stated that registrations are being accepted for the following classes:

Goauche, instructed by Mrs. Betty Pleshe, on Tuesday from 1-3 p.m.; water color, instructed by Mr. Jade Fon, on Mondays from 1-4 p.m.; and jewelry, instructed by Dr. D. C. Harris, on Thursdays from 7-9 p.m. These classes meet at the Center.

The third series of classes in mosaic will begin Tuesday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. Peter Howard in Walnut Creek. The class will be directed by Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Mildred Simon of Lafayette.

An evening class, also instructed by Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Simon, will meet at the Vallecito School in Lafayette starting on Thursday, March 7 at 8 p.m. Registration is limited in each class to 10 persons.

Mrs. Simon is also offering a class in silk screening which will have its first meeting at her Lafayette home during the week of March 4. The hours are still tentative.

For information regarding these classes interested persons may call the Center, AT 3-2930; Mrs. Kwiat, YE 4-5063; or Mrs. Simon, CL 4-2720.

Presently on exhibition at the Center are water color and oil paintings selected from the rental gallery. These works are available to the public on a rental basis.

THE SNOW AND RAIN of recent days had some positive results as Jeff Sibley can prove as he points to a budding blade of grass in his front yard. Ranchers, farmers and home owners alike responded as grass and weeds began to sprout over the countryside. The only unhappy persons in that time were commuters who found themselves snarled in miles-long traffic jams. —Sun photo by Geri Fry

Jerry Holcombe is Winner Of Dental Poster Contest

Jerry Holcombe, Walnut Creek Elementary fourth grade student is the grand prize winner in the elementary grade group of the Fifth Annual Contra Costa County Dental Health Poster Contest.

This was announced today by Dr. Z. M. Stadt, assistant health officer in charge of the County Health Department's Dental Division. The Contra Costa Dental Society, the County Health Department and the County School Department were the sponsors.

THE JUDGING Committee included Mrs. Hazel Salmi, director, Richmond Art Center; Mrs. Katy Madsen, Diablo Art Association; Miss Virginia C. Griffins, Richmond Planning Commission and the Richmond Business and Professional Women's Club; Dr. Donald E. Ninth grade — Sharron East, Pleasant Hill High; Lorna Pratt, Pleasant Hill High; Karen Sorensen, Pleasant Hill High.

Local Talent Used on March Of Dimes Slot

Residents of Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Pleasant Hill took part in the special Contra Costa March of Dimes program January 31 on the "People, Places and Things" show on Channel 13, KVOR, Stockton.

Bill Earl of 1668 Arbutus Drive, Walnut Creek, joined Diane LaBrie, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaBrie, 13 Beth Street, Pleasant Hill, and Veronica Orin, 7, of Concord, in a dance created for the show by Mrs. Alma Mendell of Lafayette. It depicted the trials and rehabilitation of a polio stricken child.

Mrs. Katie Madsen, artist and member of the Diablo Art Association, utilized her talent to draw an on-the-spot portrait of Mrs. Richard Sailer of Hercules, who with her son, Ricky, 6, represented the mothers participating in the Mothers' March of Dimes.

One of Mrs. Madsen's paintings was among 20 pictures donated by the Diablo Art group to be auctioned by sealed bid to aid the MOD campaign. The paintings were shown on the show.

Action on Ice Beckons As New Rink Opens, Says Bill

By BILL HAYWARD

WALNUT CREEK ICE SKATING RINK . . . should be on "the ice" by May 1 according to Neil Rose and Skip Baxter, operators of the newest thing to come to these parts. Rose and Baxter, professional skaters in the true sense of the word know this "Skating on the Ice" business from the middle both ways.

Thousands of very satisfied customers will be very happy to see this new larger rink completed. Neil and Skippy have won a host of friends at their old location up on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near the Old Tunnel Road where during the past few years they have taught Walnut Creek how to skate and spin on the ice. The new location will be just a stones throw east of North Main Street on the north side of Crokaerts Road.

This is another deevlopment by busy contractor Ed Romley, a builder that could "crow" about many successful building projetcs and yet he is truly "the quiet man." May 1 will be a RED LETTER day for Walnut Creek as thousands will be able to again enjoy group skating in this modern ICE RINK. Lessons will be on the agenda too just as soon as schedules can be arranged.

SAN RAMON . . . for Boeing Aircraft . . . or who? Looks like thumbs down on this spot for at least this year. Talk about an area that blows hot and cold on big time developments, this is it!

However, the Bishop Corporation holdings are again in the news . . . quietly . . . yet rather firmly so. The big Bishop firm has 1800 acres, more or less, near San Ramon plus 4200 acres in the Goleta-Santa Barbara area. Rumors and rumblings are again in the news concerning Los Angeles interests and their negotiations to purchase the operation, Lock, Stock and Dirt . . . 6000 acres of California . . . the price is reputed to be in excess of $5,000,000 — a tidy little sum if I ever heard one . . . . incidentally, the maps are still in the Planning Commissions files calling for over 4000 homesites in the section south of Danville toward Dublin . . . COULD BE! and soon too.

SPEAKING OF PLANNING . . . and listening to Sol Gilberg, prominent Oakland Realtor, as he spoke to the Contra Costa Real Estate Board meeting recently, and I quote the gent, "When your City and County Planning Commissions can establish sound, fixed zoning for certain areas that will allow building uses in accordance with established zoning without the additional necessity of a land use permit, you will then have accomplished the PRIME purpose of a planning group." End of quote. Where have I heard that remark, or one like it before?

It is very difficult to understand, considering today's streamlined methods in business activity, why the seemingly progressive City of Walnut Creek still requires a land use permit in some fixed zones. Why is it not permissible to build, establish and operate an industrial plant in an industrial zone without first obtaining a secondary and special permit.

And, WHY is it necessary to put more RED TAPE and delay in the path of progress and development? Everyone fully realizes that our TAX LOAD is high enough as it is. Our industrial zones should be freely encouraged to attract orderly and correctly controlled industry to our town. It goes without saying that we need new commercial, industrial and allied developments to help spread the tax load over a few more shoulders. Attend your planning commission meetings and speak your opinion. Watch your calendar for dates.

WALNUT CREEK . . . according to J. S. Hilbun of Bethel Island, we can expect a new and beautiful restaurant and cocktail lounge in the very near future in downtown Walnut Creek at the northeast corner of Locust and Walnut Streets. This corner, formerly an automobile sales lot is owned by Farry Granzotto, local trucking tycoon and gravel merchant.

Plans call for a modern structure estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $50,000. The downtown area has long been in need of a handy new luncheon and dinner spot. Work will begin just as soon as the State Board licensing regulations have been complied with.

NEXT WEEK . . . will bring the latest dope on processing a California State Veterans Home loan. Hard to believe, but it's true . . . "CAL-VET" interest rates are still only 3 per cent . . . bend your ear . . . it IS good news.

This Dreamland Can be Yours-- Free of Charge

Want a nice, quiet home, miles from the noise and bustle of the city?

Would you like a nice cozy cottage, in the middle of a serene wilderness, with a fish-stocked stream running nearby?

This paradise may be yours—and all free of charge.

A pipe dream? Not at all. All you have to do is make a phone call.

The two-bedroom cottage is situated about 35 miles from Yosemite. It has been vacated by W. E. Porath, who's now looking for someone to move in.

He's not even asking any rent, according to his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Matson, of 1135 Camino Vallecito, Lafayette. Mrs. Matson explains that her father hates to see the place vacant, so all a person looking for seclusion and serenity has to do is move in.

The nearest town, Coulterville, is 14 miles away, and you'll have to travel about a mile to visit your nearest neighbor.

You won't even have to take much along with you. There's some furniture and a fireplace and a new range inside. Out of doors you can feed both body and soul by fishing, hunting, and enjoying the bliss of nature.

Plenty of fresh water, a barn and a chickenhouse thrown in for good measure.

If you don't believe it, just call Mrs. Matson at AT 3-3196. She's loogin for you.

Dr. Vizzard to Leave for East

Dr. Joseph N. Vizzard, Lafayette doctor for the past 10 years, will be leaving shortly for postgraduate study at the University of Pennsylvania. He was recently awarded a fellowship for specialized study in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, a two-year course.

Dr. Vizzard attended the University of San Francisco and took his medical training at Marquette University School in Medicine in Milwaukee, Wis.

He opened his present offices on Wilkinson Lane in January, 1955. He will be accompanied to the east by his wife, Therese, and his four children, Cecile, Stephen, Michele and Jimmy. The doctor plans to return to this area at the termination of his fellowship.

His practice will be assumed by Cyril T. Callister, M.D., who is returning to private practice following three years in surgical training at various institutions about the Bay Area and in Seattle and three years as surgeon at the Oakland Veterans Hospital.

Dr. Callister is a native of Salt Lake City, Utah, a graduate of Utah University and practiced in general medicine and surgery in Salt Lake City before coming to California.

He is married, the father of four children Susan, Barry, Ann and Bruce, and has made his home in Lafayette for the past eight years.

Blos Paintings

The paintings of Peter Blos, S.W.A., will be the exhibition in the contemporary section at St. Mary's Keith Gallery through March 31.

A few are Arizona landscapes but most of them are of Navajo and Hopi Indians painted very intimately, vitally, and with a mastery that brings to mind the best work of Lenbach.

5000 Youths Participating In Scout Week Activities

Five thousand boys of the Meridian District of Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council are participating this week in various activities comemorating the 47th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement in America.

These include troop and cub pack banquets, Scout Sunday church observances, a window-display contest sponsored by B'Nai B'Rrith, and a bigger-than-ever Scouting Exposition at Acalanes and Las Lomas High Schools tomorrow.

Window displays are attracting attention in each community, and feature Cub crafts, Scoutcraft and Sea Exploring. Locations of the windows in which these units have their displays are as follows:

ORINDA CAMERA Shop, Pack 297;

Lafayette—Troop 204, The Emporium Ship 203, 3521 Golden Gate; Pack 200, Shoo Time; Pack 220, Lafayette Paint & Hardware; Troop 224, Lafayette Hardware.

Walnut Creek—Pack 234, Grand Rapids Furniture; Troop 220, Sears; Pack 243, Sprouse Reitz; ack 219, J. C. Penney; Pack 59, H. C. Capwell; Pack 206, Grodins.

Alamo—Pack 53, Stevenson's Hi Fi; Troop 216, Louis Store; Pack 235, Coronet;

PLEASANT HILL—Pack 209, 1918 Oak Park Boulevard; Pack 230, Clark's Shoes; Pack 228, McColm Paint Store; Pack 229, Pleasant Oaks Variety; Pack 222, Hales TV; Pack 217, Fred's Hardware; Pack 221, Frank's Toyland.

Approximately 75 different demonstration booths will be erected in the gyms and multiuse rooms of Acalanes High School, Lafayette, and Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, tomorrow morning. At 2:30 p.m., opening ceremonies will be held, featuring recognition of cubmasters, scoutmasters and explorer advisors of units which participated in the nation-wide "Get-Out-the-Vote" drive last November.

WALL PLAQUES will be presented by the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge, in commemoration of the patriotic service

Demonstrations will be open rendered on that occasion. until 8:30 Saturday evening. One ticket admits to both shows, and may be purchased from any Cub or Boy Scout.

Ready Classroom For New Market

Kindergarten children at the Montecito School will soon be going into the food "business."

As part of their study of community organization and activity, children in Mrs. Gladys Fey's classes have decided to plan and build their own grocery store in their classroom.

Display shelves for the new market-in-miniature have been painted and the children are planning a "complete line of goods" to stock them. A cash register and a phone, "musts" in any store, will be included.

Oil Committee Hears of Plans

The East Contra Costa Oil Information Committee met at the Adobe in Concord last night. The Northern California chairman for the Oil Information Committee, George Gavin, was introduced.

Don J. Smith, chairman for the East Contra Costa Oil Information Committee, gave a short talk on the plans for the committee during the next several months.

Bill Williams of Orinda outlined plans for his committee on hub cap identification. Harold Agnew of Pleasant Hill gave a showing of magic tricks for an appreciative audience.

Next meeting will be held in Antioch, with plans for the April meeting to be in Walnut Creek or Lafayette.

Welfare Council Group Has Meet

"The Pied Piper of Hamlin" will be in Lafayette on February 23, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Stanley School.

This famous children's play is produced by the East Bay Children's Theatre, Inc. who's volenteer membership includes many local matrons.

Among those donating their time to serve as ushers, stage crew and ticket representatives are Mrs. Robert Pedder, Thomas R. Gaines, Charles Morrill, David Bullen, Robert Van Gelder of Lafayette, and Mrs. Will Hall, Frank Buck of Walnut Creek and Mrs. H. C. Gathings, George Krussi and Richard Frost of Orinda.

"All Children's Theatre productions are specifically designed for the consumption and interests of small fry, with high moral and cultural interests in mind." explained Mrs. Val Gelder, local publicity chairman.

Tickets are still available for 65 cents and will be on sale at the door for those who have not already bought season tickets through their school.

Christian Science

The fact that all things are possible to God will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled, "Spirit."

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Luke's account of Christ Jesus' healing of the "woman having an issue of blood twelve years" (Luke 8) will be included in readings from the King James Version of the Bible.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (182:32-4): "The law of Christ, or Truth, makes all things possible to Spirit; but the so-called laws of matter would render Spirit of no avail, and demand obedience to materialistic codes, thus departing from the basis of one God, one lawmaker."

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians (3:17): "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."

RAINY WEATHER DANGEROUS

A wet, rainy night is the most dangerous time there is for pedestrians. If you're walking, look out for vehicles and don't assume that the driver can see you. If you're driving, make sure your windshield wipers are working properly and keep a sharp lookout for persons afoot.

Sam Bradbard is Therapy Center Leader in '57

Samuel Bradbard of Pleasant Hill will succeed Charles A. Wood Jr., as president of the Board of Directors, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Bradbard is an attorney and has served in the past as chairman of the Personnel Committee and Sheltered Workshop. He was recently elected Sun Man of the Year for Pleasant Hill.

James Simonds of Lafayette, who recently received the Distinguished Service Award from the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Lafayette, was elected vice-president.

Mrs. J. R. Lar Rieu of Walnut Creek is secretary and Antone Cvietusa of Walnut Creek, was re-elected treasurer.

New members elected to the Board of Directors are Stanley Friden, of Diablo, Francis Hoey of Martinez, John McKirahan of Lafayette, and William Sharkey II of Martinez.

The Board of Directors consists of 15 elected members and 11 selected members.

The selected members are appointed to the Board from the 11 Auxiliary Units of the Center. Committee appointments will be made by Bradbard at the February Board of Directors meeting.

Blank to Speak At Mart Meeting

Jerom Blank, president of the Berkeley Real Estate Board, will speak Monday morning during the breakfast of thea Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

His title will be, "How to Make More Sales on the Hard Money Market."

It was announced that multiple lasting sales during January totaled $1,061,265, an increase of about 40 per cent over January of last year.

'Ike Doctrine' To be Discussed

This nation's foreign policy, the Eisenhower Doctrine, will be discussed at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Orinda Theater in the latest in a series of lectures by Mrs. Lorita Baker Vallely.

The series, which includes one lecture a month, is being sponsored by the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Mrs. Vallely will also review Eugene O'Neill's last play, "Long Day's Journey into Night," a Pulitzer Prize contender.

Admission will be $2 for those not holding season tickets.

Local Builders Attend Confab In Chicago

Reports on the annual convention and exposition of the National Association of Home Builders, held January 20 in Chicago, were given at a meeting of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, yesterday at El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette.

Present were National Directors Kermit Lincoln, Lafayette; Harold E. Parker, Martinez; and alternate Director Garry Grover. Lafayette; Tom Plumleigh, Antioch.

Brooks Gleason, Oakland; Jack Mullen, Richmond; Frank Pullen, Martinez; Wayne Bailey, director of the Central Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

Kenneth Richardson, Walnut Creek realtor, spoke on merchandising; the Association's Executive Secretary Ernest D. Holly and Executive Vice-President Frederick C. Cracke reported on the Board of Directors Meeting, the Convention panel sessions, the general sessions and the highlights of the exhibits.

The Convention was addressed by FHA Commissioner Norman Mason; VA Chief Benefits Director Ralph Stone; Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency Albert Cole; Congressman Henry O. Talle of Iowa, ranking minority member of the House Banking and Currency Committee; and Senator Sparkman.

DAR Presents Citizen Award To Orinda Girl

Acalanes Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. Paul Kalff in Lafayette Monday, when they were entertained at a tea honoring the Good Citizenship Award winner, chosen as the outstanding Acalanes senior girl.

Marilyn Engelhard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Englehard of Robert Road, Orinda, was the honor guest and award winner, chosen by the Acalanes senior girls and the faculty.

The little gold pin was presented to Marilyn by Mrs. Fred Knoble, Acalanes D.A.R. Chapter Good Citizenship Committee chairman.

Mrs. A. L. Ammen, chapter regent, announced that Mrs. Clarence Smith of Orinda and Mrs. A. V. Bayley of Piedmont will attend the 66th National Congress in Washington, D. C., as delegates, and Mrs. Wynne Newell, Mrs. Ralph Dewey, Mrs. Harvey Lyon and Mrs. Ammen will represent the chapter at the State Conference in San Francisco.

The March meeting will be in Berkeley at the home of Mrs. George Whittle.

Air Reservists Plan 'Son' Night

Members of the 9441st Air Reserve Squadron will hold a Father and Son's Night sometime in April, according to Lt. Col. William Winslow Jr., commanding.

The event will be held in the meeting rooms at 2040 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

A exchange in personnel was announced by Master Sgt. Frank Sales, squadron liaison sergenat.

Eight members have been transferred out of the Unit and two new ones have been assigned.

"Lost" to the squadron are Maj. Charles H. Currier, 33 Valley Drive, Orinda; Major Lloyd C. Davis, 318 Verona Avenue, Danville; Major Alan R. Scott, 1450 Alpine Road, Walnut Creek; Major Hamilton R. Stevenson, 71 Irvine Drive, Orinda; Captain Harold J. Havre Jr., 36 Charles Hill Road, Orinda; 1st Lt. Harry L. Fledderman, 10 Los Conejos, Orinda; 1st Lt. William Roberts Jr., P.O. Markevitch to Lead Symphony

Igor Markevitch, a young conductor with astonishing musical talent, is guest of the San Francisco Symphony next Thursday evening, Friday afternoon and Saturday evening.

He directs an all-orchestral program which includes Berlioz' vibrant Symphonie Fantastique, Britten's Variations on a Theme of Purcell and Ravel's Daphnis and Chloe, Second Suite.

Felton Speaks At Red Cross Observance

Karl Felton spoke to the Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, at its annual observance last week honoring volunteer workers.

Felton, now a resident of Diablo, was formerly with the Red Cross in Germany. He described its post-war activities there.

Service pins were presented to seven local women.

Five-year pins were earned by Mrs. Don Marshall, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. James T. M. Change, Pleasant Hill. For 15 years of service, pins were presented to Mrs. Leonard Seclef, Mrs. H. S. Zehner, Mrs. Dora McConnell and Mrs. George Thomas, all of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. James C. McGeehon Sr., Walnut Creek, received her 40-year pin.

Bethel to Hold Rummage Sale

Lafayette Bethel 218 of the International Order of Job's Daughters will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16, at 3627 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette (the vacant store just west of Super Saver Market).

Proceeds from this sale will help meet the bethel budget, which includes an educational fund to provide scholarships for qualified girls.

Also, this year the Grand Guardian's project is education in regard to the rheumatic heart, to which the bethel will contribute.

If you have any rummage to give, you may contact Mrs. Don Gibson, at AT 3-2133, and arrangements will be made to pick up the material.
